The Message.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 2, 1872.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

In transmitting to you this my fourth annual message, it is with thankfulness to the Giver of all good that as a nation we have been blessed for the past year with peace at home, peace abroad, and a general prosperity vouchsafed to but few peoples.

THE BOSTON AND CHICAGO FIRES.

With the exception of the recent devastating fire which swept from the earth with a breath, as it were, millions of accumulated wealth in the city of Boston, there has been no overshadowing calamity within the year to record. It is gratifying to note how like their fellow citizens of the city of Chicago, under similar circumstances a year earlier, the citizens of Boston are rallying under their misfortunes, with the prospect that their energy and perseverance will overcome all obstacles and show the same prosperity soon that they would had no disaster befallen them. Otherwise we have been free from prestilence, war and calamities, which often overtake nations; and as far as human judgement can penetrate the future, no cause seems to exist to threaten our present peace.

THE TREATY OF WASHINGTON.

When Congress adjourned in June last, a question had been raised by Great Britain, and was then pending, which for a time, seriously imperilled the settlement by friendly arbitration of the grave difference between this Government and that of her Britannic Majesty, which, by the treaty of Washington, had been referred to the tribunal of Arbitration, which had met at Geneva, in Switzerland. The Arbitrators, however, disposed of the question which had jeopardized the whole of the treaty and threatened to involve the two nations in the most unhappy relations toward each other, in a manner extremely satisfactory to this Government and in accordance with the views and the policy which I had mentioned. The tribunal which had convened at Geneva, in December, concluded its laborous session on the fourteenth day of September last, on which day, having availed itself of the discretionary power given to it by the treaty to award a sum in gross, it made its decision, whereby it awarded the sum of fifteen millions five hundred thousand dollars in gold as the indemnity to be paid by Great Britain to the United States for the satisfaction of all other claims referred to its consideration. This decision happily disposes of a long standing difference between the two Governments.

And in connection with another award made by the German Emperor, under a reference to him by the treaty, it leaves these two Governments without a shadow upon the friendly relations which it is my sincere hope may forever remain equally unclouded. The report of the agent of the United States appointed to attend the Geneva tribunal, accompanied by the protocol of the proceedings of the arbitrators, the arguments of the counsel of both Governments, the award of the Tribunal and the opinions given by the several arbitrations, is transmitted herewith. I have caused to be communicated to the heads of the three friendly powers who complied with the joint request made to them under the treaty, the thanks of this Government for the appointment of arbitrators made by them respectively, and also my thanks to the eminent personages named by them; and my approbation of the dignity, patience impartiality, and great ability with which they discharged their arduous and high functions.

Her Majesty's Government has communicated to me its appreciation by her Majesty of the ability indefatigable industry displayed by Mr. Adams, the arbitrator named on the part of the Government, during the protracted inquiries and discussions of the tribune. I cordially unite with Her Majesty in this appreciation. It is due to the agent of the United States before the tribunal to record my high appreciation of the marked ability, unwearied patience, and the prudence and discretion with which he has conducted the responsible and delicate duties committed to him as it is also due to the learned and eminent counsel who attended the tribunal on the part of this Government to express my sense of the talents and wisdom which they brought to bear in the attainment of the result so happily reached.

It will be the province of Congress to provide for the distribution among those who may be entitled to it of their respective shares of the money to be paid.

Although the sum awarded is not payable until a year from the date of the award it is deemed advisable that no time be lost in making an examination of the several cases in which indemnification may be due. I consequently recommend the creation of a Board of Commissioners for the purpose.

THE SAN JUAN BOUNDARY.

By the thirty-fourth article of the treaty of Washington, the respective claims of the United States and Great Britain, in their construction of the 15th of June, 1846, defining the boundary line between their respective territories, were submitted to the arbitration, and the award of His Majesty the Emperor of Germany, to decide which of these claims is most in accordance with the true interpretation of the treaty of 1846.—His Majesty the Emperor of Germany, having been pleased to undertake the arbitration, has the earnest thanks of this Government and of the people of the United States for the labor, pains and care which he has devoted to the consideration of this long pending difference. I have caused an expression of my thanks to be cammunicated to his Majesty. Mr. Boncroft, the representative of his Government at Berlin, conducted the case and prepared the statement on the part of the United States with the ability that his past service justified the public in expecting at his hands as a member of the Cabinet. At the date of the treaty which has given rise to the discussion between the two governments, as the minister of Great Britain, when the construction now pronounced unfounded was first advanced, and as the agent and representative of the Government to present the case and to receive the award, he has been associated with the question in all of its phases, and in every stage has manifested a patriotic zeal and earnestness in the maintenance of the claim of the United States. He is entitled to much credit for the success which has attended the submission. After a partial investigation of the case, and of the statements of each party, His Majesty, the Emperor, on the 21st of October last, signed his award in writing, decreeing that the claim of the Government of the United States, that the boundary line between the territories of Her Britannic Majesty and the United States, should be drawn through the Haro channel, is most in accordance with the true interpretation of the treaty concluded on the 15th of June, 1846, between the Governments of Her Britannic Majesty and of the United States. Copies of the case were presented by each Government and of the statement or the reply of each, and a translation of the award, are transmitted herewith. This award confirms the United States in their claim to the important archipelago of islands lying between the continent and Vancouver's Island, which for more than twenty-six years—ever since the ratification of the treaty—Great Britain has contested, and leaves us, for the first time in the history of the United States as a nation, without a question of disputed boundary between our territory and the posessions of Great Britain on this continent.

It is my grateful duty to acknowledge the prompt and spontaneous action of her Majesty's Government in giving effect to the award; in anticipation of any request from this Government, and before the reception of the United States of the awards signed by the Emperor, Her Majesty had given instructions for the removal of her troops, which had been stationed there, and for the cessation of all exercise or claim of jurisdiction, so as to leave the United States in the executive possession of the lately disputed territory. I am gratified to be able to announce that the orders for the removal of the troops have been executed, and that the military point the occupation of San Juan has ceased. The islands are now in the executive possession of the United States.

It now becomes necessary to complete the survey and a determination of that portion of the boundary line through the Haro Channel, upon which the commission which determined the remaining part of the line were unable to agree. I recommend the appointment of a commission to act jointly with one which may be named by Her Majesty for that purpose. The experiance of the difficulties attending the determination of our admitted line of boundary after the occupation of the territory and its settlement by those owing allegiance to the respective Government's points to the importance of establishing, by natural objects or rather monuments, the actual line between the territory acquired by purchase from Russia and the adjoining possessions of Her Britannic Majesty. The region is now so sparsely occupied that no conflicting interests of individuals or of jurisdiction are likely to interfere to the delay or embarrassment of the actual location of the line deferred. Population will enter and occupy the territory. Trivial contests of neighbors may again array the two Governments in antagonism. I therefore recommended the appointment of a commission to act jointly with one that may be appointed on the part of Great Britain, to determine the line between our territory of Alaska and the Caleiminous possessions of Great Britain. In my last annual message I recommend the legislation necessary on the part of the United States to bring into operation the articles of the treaty of Washington of May 8, 1871, relating to the fisheries and to other matters touching the relations of the United States toward the British North American possessions, to become operative so soon as the proper legislation should be had on the part of Great Britain and its possessions which had not then been had, and during the session of Congress a question was raised, which for the time raised a doubt whether any action by Congress in the direction indicated would become important. This question has since been disposed of, and I have received notice that the Imperial Parliament and other legislatures of the Provincial Government have passed laws to carry the provisions of the treaty on the matters referred to into operation. I therefore recommend your early adoption of the legislation in the same direction necessary on the part of this Government.

THE FORTY-NINTH PARALLEL.

The Joint Commission for determining the boundary line between the United States and British possessions, between the Lake of the Woods and the Rocky Mountains, has organizea and entered upon its work. It is desirable that the force be increased in order that the completion of the survey and determination of the line may be the sooner attained. To this end I recommend that a sufficient appropriation be made.

PEACE WITH FOREIGN POWERS.

With France, our earliest ally, Russia, the constant and steady friend of the United States, Germany, with whose Government and people we have so many causes of friendship and so many common sympathies, and the other powers of Europe, our relations are maintained on the most friendly terms. Since my last annual message, the exchange has been made of the ratification of a treaty with the Austro-Hungarian Empire, relating to naturalization; also of a treaty with the German Empire respecting consuls and trade marks; also a treaty with Sweden and Norway, relating to naturalization, all of which treaties have been duly proclaimed. Congress at its last session having made an appropriation to defray the expense of commissioners on the part of the United States to the International Statistical Congress at St. Petersburg, the persons appointed in that character proceeded to their destination and attended the sessions of the Congress. Their report shall in due season be laid before you. This Congress meets at intervals of three years, and has held its session in several of the countries of Europe. I submit to your consideration the propriety of extending an invitation to the Congress to hold its next session in the United States. The centennial celebration to be held in 1876 would afford an appropriate occasion for such meeting.

THE VIENNA EXPOSITION.

Preparations are making for the International Exposition to be held during the next year in Vienna on a scale of very great magnitude. The tendency of these expositions is in the direction of advanced civilization and of the elevation of industry and of labor, and of the increase of human happiness as well as of greater intercourse and good will between nations. As this Exposition is to be the first which will have been held in eastern Europe, it is believed that American inventors and manufacturers will be ready to avail themselves of the opportunity for the presentation of their productions if encouraged by proper aid and protection. At the last session of Congress authority was given for the appointment of one or more agents to represent this Government at the Exposition. The authority thus given has been exercised, but in the absence of any appropriation there is danger that the important benefits which the occasion offers will in a large degree be lost to the citizens of the United States. I commend the subject strongly to your consideration, and recommend that an adequate appropriation be made for the purpose. To further aid American exhibitors at the Vienna Exposition, I would recommend in addition to an appropriation of money that the Secretary of the Navy be authorized to fit up two naval vessels to transport between our Atlantic cities and Tristie, or the most convenient port, to Vienna and back their articles of exhibition.

OUR RELATIONS WITH MEXICO.

Since your last session the President of the Mexican Republic, distinguished by his high character and by his services to his country, has died. His temporary successor has now been elected with great unanimity by the people, a proof of confidence on their part in his patriotism and wisdom which is believed will be confirmed by the results of his administration. It is particularly desirable that nothing should be left undone by the Government of either Republic to strengthen their relations as neighbors and friends. It is much to be regretted that many lawless acts continue to disturb the quiet of the settlements on the border between our territory and that of Mexico, and that complaints of wrongs to American citizens in various parts of the country are made. The revolutionary condition in which the neighboring republic has so long been involved has in some degree contributed to this disturbance. It is to be hoped that with a more settled rule of order through the republic, which may be expected from the present Government, the acts of which just complaint is made, will cease.

The proceedings of the commission under the convention with Mexico of the 4th of July, 1868, on the subject of claims, have unfortunately been checked by an obstacle, for the removal of which measures have been taken by the two governments which, it is believed, will prove successful. The Commissioners appointed, pursuant to the joint resolution of Congress of the 7th of May last, to inquire into the depredations on the Texan frontier, have diligently made investigations in that quarter. Their report upon that subject will be communicated to you. Their researches were necessarily incomplete, partly on account of the limited appropriation made by Congress. Mexico, on the part of that Government, has appointed a similar commission to investigate these outrages. It is not announced officially, but the press of the country states that the fullest investigation is desired, and that the co-operation of all parties concerned is invited to secure that end. I therefore recommend that a special appropriation be made at the earliest day practicable to enable the commissioners on the part of the United States to return to their labors.

AFFAIRS IN CUBA.

It is not without regret that I have again to announce the continuance of the disturbed condition of the Island of Cuba. No advance toward the pacification of the discontented part of the population has been made, while the insurrection has gained no advantage, and exhibits no more of the elements of power or of the prospects of ultimate success than were exhibited a year ago. Spain, on the other hand, has not succeeded in its repression, and the parties stand apparently in the same relative attitude which they have occupied for a long time past. This contest has lasted now for more than four years. Were it seen at a distance from our neighborhood, we might be indifferent to its result, although humanity could not be unmoved by many of its incidents, wherever they might occur. It is, however, at our door. I cannot doubt that the continued maintenance of the slavery in Cuba is among the strongest inducements to the continuance of this strife. A terrible wrong is the natural cause of a terrible evil. The abolition of slavery and the introduction of other reforms in the administration of the Government in Cuba could not fail to advance the restoration of peace and order. It is greatly to be hoped that the present liberal government of Spain will voluntarily adopt this view. The law of emancipation, which was passed more than two years since, has remained unexecuted, in the absence of regular ones for its enforcements. It was but a feeble step towards emancipation, but it was the recognition of right, and was hailed as such, and exhibited in harmony with sentiments of humanity and of justice, and in sympathy with the other powers of the Christian and civilized world. Within the past few weeks the regulations for carrying out the laws of emancipation have been announced, giving evidence of the sincerity of the intention of the present Government to carry into effect the laws of 1870. I have not failed to urge the consideration of the wisdom, the policy and the justice of a more effective system for the abolition of the great evil which oppresses a people and continues a bloodied and destructive contest close to our border, as well as the expediency and the justice of conceding reforms of which the propriety is not questioned. Deeply impressed with the conviction that the continuation of slavery is one of the most active causes of the continuance of the unhappy condition in Cuba, I regret to believe that the citizens of the United States, or those claiming to be such, are large holders in Cuba of what is there claimed as property, which is forbidden and denounced by the law of the United States. They are thus in defiance of the spirit of our own law, contributing to the continuance of this distressing and sickening contest. In my last annual message I referred to this subject, and I again recommend such legislation as may be proper to denounce, and if not prevent, at least to discourage American citizens from holding or dealing in slaves.

It is announced that the ratification of the convention under the auspices of this Government between Spain on one part and the allied Republics of the Pacific on the other, providing for an armistice, have been exchanged. A copy of the instrument is herewith submitted. It is hoped that this may be followed by a permanent peace between the same parties.

OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS.

The differences which at one time threatened the maintenance of peace between Brazil and the Argentine Republic, it is hoped, are in the way of satisfactory adjustment. With these States, as with the Republics of Central and South America, we continue to maintain the most friendly relations. It is with regret, however, I announce that the Government of Venezuela has made no payments to the award under the convention of the 25th of April, 1866. That Republic is understood to be now almost, if not quite, tranquilized. It is hoped, therefore, that it will lose no time in providing for the unpaid balance of its debt to the United States, which having originated in injuries to our citizens, and by the Venezuelan authorities, and having been acknowledged pursuant to a treaty of the most solemn form known among nations, would seem to deserve a preference over debts of a different origin and contracted in a different manner. This subject is again recommended to the attention of Congress for such action as may be deemed proper.

THE JAPANESE EMBASSY.

Our treaty relations with Japan remain unchanged. An imposing Embassy from that interesting and progressive nation visited this country during the year that is passing, but being unprovided with power for the signing of a convention in this country, no conclusion in that direction was reached. It is hoped, however, that the interchange of opinions which took place during their stay in this country has led to a mutual appreciation to their interest which may be promoted when the revision of the existing treaty shall be undertaken. In this connection I renew my recommendation of one year ago, that to give importance and to add to the efficiency of our diplomatic relations with Japan and China, and to further aid in retaining the good opinion of those people, and to secure the United States its share of the commerce that is destined to flow between those nations and the balance of the commercial world, an appropriation be made to support at least four American youths in each of these countries to serve as a part of the official family of our Ministers there. Our representatives would not even then be placed upon an equality with the representation of Great Britain and of some other powers. As now situated our representatives in Japan and China have to depend for interpreters and translators upon natives of those countries, who know our language imperfectly, or procure for the occasion the services of employes in foreign business houses or the interpreters to other foreign ministers.

PROTECTION OF OUR CITIZENS ABROAD.

I renew the recommendation made on a previous occasion of the transfer to the Department of the Interior to which they seem more appropriately to belong, all the powers and duties in relation to the territories with which the Department of State is now charged by law, or by custom. Congress, from the beginning of the Government, has wisely made provision for the relief of the distressed seamen in foreign countries. No similar provision, however, has hitherto been made for the relief of citizens in distress abroad other than seamen. It is understood to be customary with other governments to authorize Consuls to extend such relief to their citizens or subjects in certain cases. A similar authority, and an appropriation to carry it into effect are commended in the case of citizens of the United States destitute or sick under such circumstances. It is well known that such citizens report to foreign Consuls in great numbers. Though most of them are able to bear the expenses incident to locomotion, there are some who through accident or otherwise become penniless, or have no friends at home able to succor them. Persons in this situation must either perish, cast themselves upon the charity of foreigners, or be relieved at the private charity of our own officers, who usually, even with the most benevolent dispostions, have nothing to spare for such purposes. Should the authority and appropriation asked for be granted, care will be taken to carry the beneficence of Congress into effect, that it shall not be unnecessarily or unworthily bestowed.

THE TREASURY.

The moneys received and converted into the Treasury during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1872, were from:

Customs	$216,370,286 77
From sales of public lands	2,575,714 19

Total available cash	$484,042,573 15

The net expenditures by warrants during the same period were for:

Balance in Treasury, June 30, 1872	106,564,356 94
Total	$484,042,573 15

From the foregoing statement it appears that the net reduction of the principal of the debt during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1872, was $99,960,253 54. The source of this reduction is as follows:

Net ordinary receipts during year	$364,694,229 91
Net ordinary expenditures, including interest on the public debt	270,559,695 91
Total	$94,134,534 00
Add amount received from premium on sales of gold in excess of premium paid on bonds purchas'd	2,454,370 89
Add the am't of the reduction of the cash balance at the close of the year, accompanied with the same at the commencement of the year	3,371,348 65
Total	$99,960,253 54

This statement treats solely of the principal of the public debt, which adds together the principal, interest due and unpaid, and interest accrued to date not due, and deducts the cash in the Treasury ascertained on the day of publication. The reduction was $100,544,491 28. The source of this reduction is as follows:

Reduction in principal account	$99,960,253 54
Reduction in unpaid int. account	3,330,952 96
Total	$103,290,956 50
Reduction in cash on hand	2,746,465 22
Total	$100,544,491 28

On the basis of the last table the statements show a reduction of the public debt from the first of March, 1869, to the present time as follows:

From March 1, 1869, to March 1, '70	$87,134,782 84
From March 1, 1870, to March 1, '71	117,619,630 25
From March 1, 1871, to March 1, '72	94,895,348 94
From March 1, '72, to Nov. 1, '72	64,047,237 84
Total	$363,696,999 87

With the great reduction of taxation by the acts of Congress at its last session, the expenditure of the Government in collecting the revenue will be much reduced for the next fiscal year. It is very doubtful, however, whether any further reduction of so vexatious a burthen upon any people will be practicable for the present at all events, as a measure of justice to the holders of the nation's certificates of indebtedness, I would recommend that no more legislation be had on this subject, unless it be to correct errors of omission or commission in the present laws until sufficient time has elapsed to prove that it can be done and still have sufficient revenue to meet the current expenses of the Government, pay the interest on the public debt, and provide for the sinking fund established by law. The preservation of our national credit is of the highest importance. Next in importance to this comes a solemn duty to provide a national currency of fixed, unvarying value, as compared with gold, and as soon as practicable, having due regard for the interest of the debtors' class, and the vicissitudes of trade and commerce, convertible into gold at par.

THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

The report of the Secretary of War shows the expenditures of the War Department for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1871, to be $35,799,991,82, and for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1872, to be $35,372,157,20, showing a reduction in favor of the last fiscal year of $427,834,62. The estimates for military appropriations for the next fiscal year ending June 30, 1874, are $33,801,378.78. The estimate of the Chief of Engineers are submitted separately for fortification,s river and harbor improvements, and for public buildings and grounds, and the Washington aqueduct.

The affairs of the Freedmen' Bureau have all been transferred to the War Department, and requisitions have been put into execution for the speedy payment of bounty, pay, &c., due colored soldiers properly coming under that head of the Bureau.

All war accounts for money and property prior to 1871 have been examined and transmitted to the Treasury for final settlement. During the fiscal year there has been paid for transportation on railroads, $1,000,000, of which $800,757, was over the Pacific Railroad; for transportion by water, $62,637,352, and by stage, $4,897,584, and for the purchase of transportation animals, wagons, hire of teamsters, &c, &c., $92,465,064. About $370,000 have been collected from Southern Railroads during the year, leaving about $4,000,000 still due.

The Quartermaster has examined and transmitted to the accounting officers for settlement $367,172,72 of claims of loyal citizens for quartermasters' stores taken during the war. Subsistence supplies to the amount of $89,048,12 have been issued to the Indians.

The annual average mean strength of the army was 24,101 white and 2,494 colored soldiers.

THE MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

The total deaths for the year reported were thirty-six white and fifty-four colored.

The distribution of the medical and surgical history of the war is yet to be ordered by Congress. There exists an absolute necessity for a medical corps of the full number established by the act of Congress of July 28, 1866, there being now fifty-nine vacancies, and the number of successful candidates rarely exceeds eight or ten in one year.

RIVER AND HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.

The river and harbor improvements have been carried on with energy and economy. Though many are only partially completed, the results have saved to commerce many times the amount expended. The increase of commerce with greater depth of channels, greater security in navigation, and the saving of time, adds millions to the wealth of the country, and increases the resources of the Government. The bridge across the Mississippi river at Rock Island has been completed, and the proper site has been determined upon for the bridge at La Crosse.

THE SUBTRA TUNNEL.

The able and exhaustive report made by the commission appointed to investigate the Subtra Tunnel has been transmitted to Congress.

THE SIGNAL SERVICE.

The observations and reports of the Signal office have been continued. Stations have been maintained at each of the principle lake, sea port and river cities. Ten additional stations have been established in the United States, and arrangements have been made for an exchange of reports with Canada, and a similar exchange of observations is contemplated with the West India Islands.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR.

The favorable attention of Congress is invited to the following recommendations of the Secretary of War: A discontinuance of the appointment of extra lieutenants to serve as adjutants and quartermasters; the adoption of a code providing specific penalties for well defined offences, so that the inequality of sentences adjudged by court-martial may be adjusted; the consolidation of accounts under which expenditures are made as a measure of economy; the appropriation of the money for the construction of a depot at San Antonio, the title to the site being now perfected; a special act placing the cemetery at the City of Mexico on the same basis as other national cemeteries; authority to purchase sites for military posts in Texas; the appointment of commissary sergeants from non-commissioned officers as a measure for securing the better care and protection of supplies; an appropriation for the publication of the catalogue and tables of the anatomical section of the army medical museum; a reappropriation of of the amount for the manufacture of breech loading arms, should the selection be so delayed by the board of officers as to leave the former appropriation unexpended at the close of the fiscal year; the sale of such arsenals east of the Mississippi as can be spared and the proceeds applied to the establishment of one large arsenal of construction and depot upon the Atlantic coast, and the purchase of a suitable site for a proving and experimenting ground for heavy ordnance; the adoption of laws which deprive inventors in the United States service from deriving any benefit from their inventions; the repeal of the law prohibiting promotions in the staff corps; a continuance of the work upon coast defences; the repeal of the seventh section of the act of July 13, 1866, taking from engineer soldiers the per diem granted to other troops; a limitation of time for the presentation of old war claims for subsistence supplies under the act of July 11th, 1864, and a modification in the mode of the selection of cadets for the Military Academy, which is inspired by reason of the large amount of time necessarily expended in giving new cadets a thorough knowledge of the more elementary branches of learning, which they should acquire before entering the academy; also an appropriation for philosohical apparatus, and increase in the numbers and pay of the Military Academy band.

TRANSPORTATION TO THE SEA-BOARD.

The attention of Congress will be called during its present session to various enterprises for the more certain and cheaper transportation of the constantly increasing surplus of the western and southern products to the Atlantic seaboard. The subject is one that will force itself on the legislative branch of the Government sooner or later, and I suggest, therefore, that immediate steps be taken to gain all available information to insure equable and just legislation. A route to connect the Mississippi Valley with the Atlantic, to Charleston, South Carolina, and Savannah, Georgia, by water, by the way of the Ohio and Tennessee rivers, and canals and slack water navigation to the Savannah and Ocmulgee rivers, has been surveyed, and a report made by the accomplished second and third engineer officers of the army. New routes will be prepared for the consideration of Congress—namely, by an extension of the Kanawaha and James River Canal to the Ohio, and by an extension of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.

I am not prepared to recommend Government aid to these or other enterprises until it is clearly shown that they are not only of national interest, but that when completed they will be of a value commensurate with their cost. That production increases more rapidly than the means of transportation in our country, has been demonstrated by past experience. That the unprecedented growth in populations and products of the whole country will require additional facilities and cheaper ones for the more bulky articles of commerce to reach tide water and market, will be demanded in the near future is equally demonstrable. I would therefore suggest that either a committee or commission be authorized to consider this whole question, and to report to Congress at some future day for its better guidance in legislating on this important subject.

RAILWAY EXTENSION.

The railroads of the country have been rapidly extended during the last few years to meet the growing demand of products, and reflect much credit upon the capitalists and managers engaged in their construction. In addition to these to facilitate commerce by the building of a ship canal around Niagara Falls on the United States side, which has been agitated for many years, your attention will no doubt be called at this session, looking to the great future growth of the country and the increasing demands of commerce. It might be well while on this subject not only to have examined and reported on the various practical routes for the connection of the Missisipi with the water on the Atlantic, but the feasibility of an almost continous land-locked naviga-

J. WEYAND, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Beaver, Pa., December 11, 1872.

THE Pittsburgh Evening Chronicle, one of our best city exchanges threw away the old and put on a new dress a few days ago. The Chronicle is an excellent evening paper, and richly merits the success which it is achieving.

MR. MERRIMON, the recent Democratic Liberal candidate for Governor in North Carolina was elected by the Legislature of that State, last week, to the United States Senate. The opposing candidates were, Pool (present Senator) and Zebulon B. Vance.

THE President has appointed Hon. James L. Orr of South Carolina, as Minister to Russia. This appointment is a fair one, and we have no doubt but that Mr. O., will represent the country faithfully and acceptably at St. Petersburg.

THE President's annual message will be found in the ARGUS to-day. It is a document which everybody should read, and we have, therefore, no apology to make to our readers for taking up so much of our room this week in laying it before them. "Read ponder and digest, is the advice we give to all."

MISS Ida Greeley, if the reports are true, has suffered afflictions recently, such as but few persons of her years are called upon to pass through: Two months ago her mother died, next her lover, to whom she was engaged to be married, went down in the ill-fated Missouri; and now her father, whose death has shocked the whole nation, is taken from her. She is entitled to, and doubtless has, the sympathy of all civilized and christian people.

THE rival factions in Louisiana are at war again, and both parties are telegraphing to the President their views of the situation. Governor Warmoth seems to have the people with him, while Collector Casey and the other United States officers are backed by the Courts—the United States courts at least. Serious trouble is now apprehended and bloodshed is hourly expected. The Warmothites claim that they are struggling for State Sovereignty, and that their opponents are laboring in the interests of centralization.

A formidable opposition is said to be springing up in the East against Senator Cameron's re-election to the United States Senate. Linn Bartholomew, "Bill" Kemble, and other political manipulators are engaged in working the movement up. "When ring meets ring then comes the tug of war." Were we going to bet on the result, however, we would lay down our pile on Cameron. He has control of the State Treasury now and any candidate who beats him must have more money about his clothes than the Treasury contains.

THE House of Representatives at Washington passed a bill, a few days ago, largely reducing the number of Internal Revenue Assessors in the United States. Dispatches on Monday morning infom us that quite a number of the likely to be decapitated Assessors have put in an appearance at Washington and are urging Senators to reject the House bill abolishing their office. It is understood that several Senators have already consented to oppose this measure on the groued that it "interferes with our friends." These law givers evidently care more for themselves than they do for the public welfare. The bill, notwithstanding their opposition, will more than likely go through the Senate and become a law.

SPEAKER BLAINE did the right thing, and in the right way in Congress the other day: He called the Hon. S. S. Cox of New York to the Speaker's chair, and then asked that gentleman to appoint a committee to investigate the Credit Mobilier scandal. Mr Blaine, it will be remembered, was charged some time ago, in connection with other members of Congress, with having accepted bribes for their votes and influence, in favor of the Credit Mobilier company. This disposition on his part to have the whole subject opened by an inpartial committee, would seem to indicate that Mr. Blaine at least is not guilty of receiving bribes as charged some time ago by his opponents. Mr. Cox appointed the following named gentlemen to serve on the committee asked for: Messrs Poland and M'Creery (Rep.) Messrs Beck and Niblack, (Dem.) and Gen. Banks, (Lib. Rep.)

SENATOR CAMERON of this State exhibited his spleen toward the dead Greeley in the United States Senate the other day. He refused to allow a motion to be made to adjourn the Senate from Tuesday to Thursday, thus allowing senators an opportunity of attending Mr. Greeley's funeral. Senator Scott, it affords us pleasure to note, was in favor of the proposed adjournment, and intended making some appropriate remarks on Mr. Greeley's death when the motion to adjourn could be brought before the Senate. Mr. Cameron, however, took time by the forelock, stopped the reading of the journal, and moved to adjourn until the next day only. This carried, and many Senators who desired to attend the illustrious journalist's funeral were prevented from doing so through the spleen of one of Pennsylvania's Senators.

THE Wayne county Press suggests an idea that deserves some thought. After alluding to the fact that large sums of money were expended to procure votes at the recent election, it says: "We have laws now in our statute-books that punish bribery at elections, but they are never enforced, and probably never will be; but it appears to us there is a way to punish the briber and the bribed in a manner much more salutary than the modes now prescribed by the laws. Our plan is for the Legislature this winter to enact a law, making a purchased voter challengable, and prescribing an oath to be administered upon such a challenge—the penalty being the disfranchisement of the person offering the vote in case he has been bribed," The Press' suggestion is a very good one; but a law, such as the one referred to, ought to be made to embrace those fellows who give their votes and influence to bad men for promises of official preferment in the future. A man who sells his vote for a $5 bill is not a whit worse than his neighbor who votes for a villain this year in order that he may obtain for himself the vote and influence of that same villain next year. Self-aggrandizement is the objective point in both cases, and if it is right to disfranchise the one, it is just to disfranchise the other. We are in favor of chucking all that kind of men under.

THE Radical says that General Cameron and Governor elect Hartranft, did not make an effort to have the President set aside the civil service rules in the case of the Philadelphia Postmastership. We are inclined to think that they did, and if the Radical editor had seen the cartoon in Harpers Weekly of Dec. 7th. he hardly would have ventured to deny the fact. That paper is edited by the author of the civil service rules, and has been regarded for many months past as the President's personal organ. In the issue of the 7th Cameron and Hartranft are represented as standing in front of the President with bowie knives and revolvers in their hands and saying: "Down with the civil service rules. To the victor's belong the spoils; we are the victor's;" Give us Freeman not Fairman. The President looks contemptously upon the raiders and tells them, "I am determined to enforce those rules." Cameron drops his knife, turns away with horror and rage depicted on his face, and it is at this point Hartranft is reported to have said "Good God, gentlemen, is it for this that Pennsylvania gave him 135,000 majority?" Now if the Radical is right it is very strange that the President's personal organ would thus caricature Cameron and Hartranft, and decidedly singular that the author of the civil service rules should hold these gentlemen up in a directly opposite light. The Radical may "whistle to keep its courage up" as much as it pleases, but when it comes to mis-stating facts, that is another thing.

ON LAST Wednesday afternoon all that was mortal of the Hon. Horace Greeley was deposited in the tomb. The city (New York) in which he had spent the greater part of his life, and for whose people he had done so much, was draped in mourning, and everywhere throughout the country the national flag was flying at half-mast. No private citizen in our whole land was ever accorded more honor while being borne to his last resting place and none deserved it better. Commencing life in poverty and obscurity, he worked his own way up to the very head of journalism, and for the thirty years preceding his death no man living did more to succor the poor, raise the fallen and protect the weak than himself. It was fitting, therefore, that the whole country should mourn his loss, and it was a graceful tribute to departed worth shown by the President and Vice President of the United States, Senators, and Supreme Judges, to leave their posts at Washington and join the vast throng at New York who had gathered about the dead editor's remains to take a last look at his kindly face and to drop a tear to his memory.

The funeral services were conducted in Dr. Chapin's church and impressive orations were delivered by Henry Ward Beecher and Dr. Chapin. The funeral procession was about four miles in length and so dense was the crowd of spectators on the way to Greenwood, that it was with difficulty the procession made its way through.

"It was nearly dusk when the cortege reached the Cemetery and drew up near Mr. Greeley's vault on Locust Hill whither only a month ago he had followed the coffin of his wife. The open vault, containing the bodies of his wife and three departed children, was surrounded by a dense mass of people, through whom the police with difficulty cleared the way. There was a short and simple ceremony—merely a brief prayer, and a blessing, during which the weeping relatives stood before the entrance of the vault, and the pall-bearers grouped themselves opposite with uncovered heads. Then the body of Horace Greeley was deposited in its last resting place, and his daughters descended, and laid upon the coffin their tributes of flowers.

So rests the great journalist, the statesman, the philosopher, the honest man. He has gone to his grave with the lament of the whole people: he will hold a place in their hearts as long as Americans know how to honor patriotism, unselfishness, and Christian virtue."

AN interesting decision, affecting landlords of hotels, has been decided in the circuit court by Judge Cartter. The facts were as follows: Mrs. Harlowe, in 1861, boarded at the Metropolitan hotel of which Mr. Marshall Brown was proprietor; and when she left, the bills not being paid, Mr. Brown detained her trunks, telling her that when her bill was paid they would be given up. Eight years afterward Mr. Brown returned the trunks, notwithstanding the bills were unpaid. Mrs. Harlowe alleged that all her goods were not returned, and brought suit to recover $217, the value of the goods she claims were lost. The defendant offered evidence that during the whole time the trunks were in his possession he kept them locked up in a storeroom.

The defendant asked the court to instruct the jury that if they believed the plaintiff could have obtained her trunks at any time by paying the bill, and if defendant used ordinary care, the plaintiff was not entitled to recover. Judge Cartter refused this prayer, and said the landlord's lien gave him the right to detain the baggage a reasonable time, and at the end of such time such baggage should be sold at public sale, and the hotel bill be paid out of the proceeds. If he detained baggage to such reasonable time, he was resposible for all losses. The defendant noted an exception. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiff of $50. Mr. J. C. Marbury appeared for plaintiff, and Mr. J. F. Ennis for defendant.—Washington Chronicle.

A clergyman and one of his elders were walking home from church one frosty day, when the old gentleman slipped and fell flat on his back. The minister looked at him a moment, and being assured that he was not much hurt, said to him: "Elder, sinners stand on slippery places." The old gentleman looked up, as if to assure himself of the fact, and said, "I see they do; but I can't."

HERE AND THERE.

—Great work has been done in one year in New York, in the suppression of the infamous literature with which that city has flooded the country. Over seven tons of reading matter have been seized and destroyed, thirty-nine of the dealers have been arrested, and their allies in the police force of New York and Brooklyn have been dismissed. All this has been done by the single zeal of an obscure dry goods clerk, who has devoted himself to this work.

—About sixty years ago, John Griswold Rogers, of East Lyme, Conn., fell in love with Eliza D. Griswold, and in 1817 the couple were betrothed, and doubtless began to talk about fixing the wedding day. There appears, however, to have been more than the usual difficulty in deciding the question; at least, it was not untill last Thanksgiving day that the ceremony took place, when the bride and groom had reached the ages respectively of seventy-eight and seventy-nine. Both parties, however, belong to a long-lived race, and look forward to a wedded life of no short duration.

—Years ago, it is said, Gen. N. P. Banks made his debut on the stage of the National Theatre in Boston, as Claude Melnotte, in the Lady of Lyons. After the performance he asked a veteran actor's advice, as to whether he should stick to the stage, or not. The actor advised the young men to drop the stage and go into politics. The advice was heeded, and the actor of a single night became Governor of Massachusetts, Speaker of the National House of Representatives, military Governor of New Orleans, General in the army, and filled other important and honorable positions.

—Charles Smith, who some weeks since got in with a freight conductor, rode in the caboose with him from Zanesville to Columbus, and stole his watch, was arrested on Wednesday, and turns out to be a girl named Goldsborough. Years ago she was a thief in Columbus. Two years after leaving she returned in boy's clothes, got employment in a saloon, slept with the proprietor for three months without discovery of sex, then stole his money and left. Since then she has been a bar keeper and driver on the canal, and when arrested had a love letter with a lock of hair in her pocket, showing that she had won the affections of an artless damsel in Cleveland, and engaged to marry her. The watch was pawned in Cincinnati in the name of the conductor from whom it was stolen.

—Miss Laura Ream writes to the Cincinnati Commercial an account of an interview with Schuyler Colfax, in the course of which the retiring Vice President remarked: "I stood to-day on the very spot in the Senate chamber where I made my first reports for the Indianapolis Journal. It was then owned by Mr. Douglas, and he gave me two dollars a day for my services. I remember pleading with him for another dollar. I had to pay four dollars a week for my board, and with that and the expense of clothes and coming here and returning home, I could not very well see my way clear.—When I insisted on the other dollar, Mr. Douglas said to me: "You don't seem to consider the advantages you enjoy; you are in a way to make valuable acquaintances. See what Albert S. White has come to. He was once a reporter, You may be a member of Congress some day. Who knows?" 'I frankly confess," continued Mr. Colfax, "that I said to him in reply, I will give all my chances of being a member of Congress for the other dollar a day."

—There are some men so dead to patriotism and indifferent to conscience as to make politics a business of pecuniary profit and to prostitute all public service to this base end. Of course, such narrow-minded and small-hearted persons elevate party above all considerations of honor and decency. The United States Senate yesterday, at the motion of one man, was compelled to refuse to adjourn out of respect to Mr. GREELEY, or even to listen to an eulogy of him. And this individual was not worthy to loosen the latchets of the dead man's shoes.

The above are the comments of the Philadelphia Press on the action of SIMON CAMERON in the Senate on Tuesday last. The old sinner cannot last a great while longer.

Miss Maria Huntingdon, a Georgia girl of seventeen, who is stopping at the Broadway Hotel, in New York, was engaged to be married to a clothier named Conklin. A few days ago she quarreled with him, and immediately went to an Episcopal minister and got married to another gentleman named Walker. By the time husband and wife reached home she changed her mind again, and kissed him once, and told him never to see her more. Then she applied for a divorce, and is to be married to Conklin as soon as she is free.

"I Know that My Redeemer Liveth."

[Troy Evening Press, December 2.]

On Christmas night of 1871 the writer of this article sat beside Horace Greely at Steinway Hall, New York City, where was being given Handel's great oration of "The Messiah." During the major part of the performance he sat apparently lost in thought, if not in a doze, and seemingly oblivious to all that was going on. But when Miss Kellogg appeared and sang the great soprano, "I know that my Redeemer liveth," he raised up, his face was suffused with joy, his bright eye was dimmed with a tear, and he listened with that steady and intense earnestness so peculiar to him when interested. When it was finished no hands more loudly applauded than his, no face beamed forth such great satisfaction, and he murmured to himself those grandest of all the words of the world, "I know that my Redeemer liveth." Then again came the absent, preocupied look, nor did it change until Miss Sterling sang the contralto recitative, "Then shall come to pass that which is written: death shall be swallowed up in victory," when the same joyous look of satisfaction lighted up the face no one could look upon and not love.

A few days ago he turned wearily on his bed of pain, and the old light came back as he muttered, "I know that my Redeemer liveth;" a few hours more, and "It is done." Death was swallowed up in victory—the victory of a life-time, fighting for the right over wrong; for truth over error; for reason over prejudice; for peace and love over war and hate—the victory of a well-spent life entitling a soul to life eternal after death. This is his victory, and he needs no eulogy or monument. The heart-beat of the nation is the one, the imprint of our footsteps on the face of time the other—more lasting than marble, more enduring than brass.

President's Message concluded from fourth page.

States in the general education of the rising generation is a measure of such great importonce to our real progress and is unanimously approved by the leading friends of education, that I commend it to the favorable attention of Congress.

Such a census, coming, as it would in the last year of the first century of our national existence, would furnish a noble precedent of the progress of the United States during that century. The rapidly increasing interest in education is a most encouraging feature in the current history of the country, and it is no doubt true that this is due in a great measure to the efforts of the Bureau of Education. That office is continually receiving evidences which abundantly prove its efficiency from the various institutions of learning and education of all kinds throughout the country.

AFFAIRS IN THE TERRITORIES.

Affairs in the Territories are generally satisfactory. The energy and business capacity of the pioneers who are setting up the vast domains not yet incorporated into States are keeping pace in internal improvements and civil Government with the older communities. In but one of them (Utah) is the condition of affairs unsatisfactory, except so far as the quiet of the citizens may be disturbed by real or imaginary danger of Indian hostility. It has seemed to be the policy of the Legislature of Utah to evade all responsibility to the Government of the United States, and even to hold a position in hostility to it. I recommend a careful revision of the present laws of the Territory by Congress and the enactment of such a law as the one proposed in Congress at its last session, for instance, or something similar to it, as will secure peace, the equality of all citizens before the law, and the ultimate extinguishment of polygamy.

Since the establishment of a territorial government for the District of Columbia, the improvement of the condition of the city of Washington and surroundings, and the increased prosperity of the citizens is observable to the most casual visitor. The nation being a large owner of property in that city, should bear with the citizens of the district a just share of the expenses of these improvements. I recommend, therefore, an appropriation to reimburse the citizens for the work done by them along and in front of public grounds during the past year, and liberal appropriations in order that the improvement and embellishment of the public buildings and grounds may keep pace with the improvements made by the territorial authorities.

AGRICULTURE.

The report of the Commissioner of Agriculture gives a very full and interesting account of the several divisions of that department—the horticultural agricultural, statistical, etemological and chemical, and the benefits conferred by each upon the agricultural interest of the country.—The whole report is a complete history in detail of the workings of that department in all its branches, showing the manner in which the farmer, merchant and miner is informed and the extent to which he is aided in his pursuits. The Commissioner makes one recomendation, that measures be taken by Congress to protect and induce the planting of forests, and suggests that no part of the public lands should be disposed of without the condition that one tenth of it be reserved in timber where it exists, and where it does not exist, inducements should be offered for planting it.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

In accordance with the act of Congress, approved March 3, 1871, providing for the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of American Independence, a commission has been organized, consisting of two members from each of the States and Territories. This commission has had two sessions, and has made satisfactory progress in the organization and in the initiatory steps necessary for carrying out the provisions of the act, and for executing also the provisions of the act of June 1, 1871, creating a Centennial Board of Finance. A preliminary report of progress has been received from the President of the Commission, and is herewith transmitted. It will be the duty of the Commission, at your coming session, to transmit a full report of the progress made, and lay before you details relating to the exhibition of American and foreign artists' products and manufactures, which by the terms of the act is to be held under the auspices of the Government of the United States in the city of Philadelphia, in the year 1876. This celebration will be looked forward to by American citizens with great interest, as marking a century of a greater progress and posperity than is recorded in the history of any other nation, and is serving a further good purpose in bringing together on our soil people of all the commercial nations of the world in a manner calculated to ensure international good feelings.

THE CIVIL SERVICE.

An earnest desire has been felt to correct abuses which have grown up in the civil service of the country, through the defective method of making appointments to office. Heretofore Federal offices have been regarded too much as the reward of political services. Under the authority of Congress, rules have been established to regulate the tenure of office and the mode of appointments. It cannot be expected that any system of rules can be entirely effective and prove a perfect remedy for the existing evils until they have been thoroughly tried by actual practice, and amended according to the requirements of the service. During my term of office it shall be my earnest endeavor to so apply the rules as to secure the greatest possible reform in the civil service of the Government, but it will require the direct action of Congress to render the enforcement of the system binding upon my successors, and I hope the experience of the past year, together with appropriate legislation by Congress, may reach a satisfactory solution of the question, and secure to the public service, for all time, a practical method of obtaining faithful and efficient officers and employes.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, December 2d, 1872.

A Letter from Ethan Allen.

New York, Nov. 23, 1875.

JACOB R. FREEZE, esq., Editor State Sentinel, Trenton, N. J.

MY DEAR SIR: I have yours of the 8th inst., asking from me the intentions of the "National Committee" with reference to the future of the Liberal Republican party. It seems to me that time only can fully answer your question. Curcumstances must determine our future. In my own judgment we have made a gallant fight, which may yet prove to be the skirmish preceding a great victory. We were defeated because no great issues divided the political parties, and mere personal arguments were not sufficient to bring out the popular vote, or to cause a change of administration. We made a platform at Cincinnati looking to certain reforms. At Baltimore the Democracy took the Liberal platform and the nominee. At Philadelphia the Republicans adopted substantially the same platform and narrowed the fight to one of men, not principles. There being then nothing more important than individual political interests at stake, the moneyed interests of the country were thrown with the party in power and against any change, and thus at the begining the heaviest artillery was placed against us. United to this, the Democracy were apathetic; first, because no vital principal awakened an interest in the contest, and second, because years of hostility to Mr. Greeley begat indifference in an encounter merely personal between him and Gen. Grant. We did not fail because our nominee was unpopular, for I to-day believe that no man in the United States can boast of so many personal friends as Horace Greeley, and no one lives who is more beloved or esteemed than he is, for a character princely in its unselfish record and its loyalty to every moral law which governs human conduct. It is true that in the heat of an angry contest he was calumniated and misrepresented, but all such attacks were made only by the miserable gad-flies that skim over the sound and healthy flesh of the body to find some festering pimple to assail and feed upon. We failed, because we were engaged in a combat not vitalized by any issue sufficient to make a distinct line between friends and foes.

It is yet too soon to determine as to the future. If Gen. Grant faithfully carries out the pledges of his party, which are substantially the same as those made by the Liberals at Cincinnati, he may be the real, though not to us the accepted, agent of reform. If Gen. Grant carries out the measures of our party, consistency if nothing else, may compel our approval. We cannot honestly assail him if he does for the nation that which we claim to be right. It remains to be seen what Gen. Grant will do in this direction. He has begun well in the Civil Service line in Philadelphia. Will he continue on this road of reform? If so we must applaud him. If he do not, we must resist like honest men who claim to battle for the public good.

When Congress meets, I presume the leaders of our party. Messrs. Sumner, Trumbull, Schurz, Tipton, and many others in the two Houses, will "point the way" before us. It would be premature and imprudent to indicate any course till these able and honest men have had time and opportunity to speak. The Liberal Republicans can do no better than to be passive for the present and to watch events. If we have forced the enemy, in self-defense, to adopt our own code of political morals, then we have already won the victory, even though other hands than those which we would have chosen execute the reform. But if the party in power prove their recreancy that the vows made in the storm are to be broken in the sunshine, then it will be in order to send every Liberal Republican again to his proper place, to prove by future efforts that the Liberal victory has in truth been only postponed. I remain yours, very truly,

ETHAN ALLEN,
Chairman National Committee.

HORRIBLE MURDER IN WASHINGTON COUNTY.

An Old Citizen Assassinated in Bed.

At an early hour yesterday morning a murder of peculiarly atrocious nature was committed at Eldersville, Washington county, by which an old gentleman named John Allingham was shot dead in his bed, and his wife severely injured by the same shot. The first intimation received here of the murder was a telegram yesterday to Mayor Blackmore, requesting a detective to be sent out. From other sources it appears that Allingham was proprietor of a small store at Eldersville, and would seem, from what we can learn, to have been, in comfortable circumstances. He was a man about seventy years of age and lived, as we understand, alone with his wife. The old couple occupied a room in the first story of their house, and last Wednesday night retired to bed as usual.

A little after midnight Mrs. Allingham was awakened by a terrific report, as of a gun fired in the room, and discovered that one of her fingers had been nearly shot off. A discovery of far more importance, however, was speedily made. Her husband, who laid in bed beside her, was dead. He had been murdered by the deadly load of which her hand had received a stray slug. She raised an immediate alarm, and neighbors came in. It was found that Mr. Allingham had been shot in the head with a load of slugs, and that a considerable portion of his skull had been blown away, while his brains and blood were scattered all about. One of the slugs from the weapon was what had struck Mrs. A. in the hand.

Further investigation showed that the shot had been fired from the outside, through the window. It was evident, that the deed had been deliberately planned and that full preparations had been made for its execution. A little platform was found erected just by the window, as a rest for the instrument of death. The unique instrument was also found. It was a piece of gas or water pipe, about five feet long and having a two inch bore. This strange weapon had been heavily loaded with slugs.

The murder evidently was not committed for the purpose of robbery, for the building was not entered at all. It is reported that certain parties were known to have an enmity against Mr. Allingham, and suspicion rests on certain parties as the probable perpetrators.

LATER: The Pitt. Gazette of the 7th says: The latest developments in the Washington county murder, reported in yesterday's Gazette, reveals one of the most cold-blooded crimes on record, while the manner in which the criminal has been traced, and evidence against him accumulated, render the case interesting and remarkable in the extreme. We mentioned yesterday that Detective Joseph Cupples had repaired to the scene of the tragedy. Last night at six o'clock he returned to the city, having worked up the case very efficiently in so short a time, and secured the arrest of two parties charged with the crime, together with conclusive proof of their guilt.

When Detective Cupples arrived at Eldersville he found that a coroner's jury had been empanneled, and they were sitting on the case. Several witnesses having been examined, and among others the wife of the murdered man who testified that she thought Henry Briceland had committed the crime. Other circumstances and evidence than this had already thrown strong suspicion upon Briceland, and on Thursday afternoon he was arrested in Hancock county, West Virginia, by Detective Cupples Constable Porter and Mr. Charles Hanlon. Briceland is a mulatto about thirty years of age, and a carpenter by occupation. The peculiar shape of his nose has given him the name of "Hawk," by which he was commonly known in the neighborhood where he lived. He has the reputation of being very "deep" and when arrested and charged with the crime, he revealed no confession or other evidence of his guilt, but calmly denied all knowledge of the affair. The inquest was adjourned without arriving at a verdict. Yesterday afternoon a brother of the murdered man made an information before Squire Stewart, charging Briceland with murder and a hearing was had last evening. Very little testimony was heard, as the prosecution only endeavored to bring proof sufficient to commit the prisoner. This they succeded in doing, and Briceland was placed in the county jail.

Upon the arriving at Eldersville, Detective Cupples at once set to work to investigate the case, and he did not labor long in vain. In Briceland's pocket was found a passbook, and among other writing were the figures, 6 ft. 7 in. The Detective measured the board upon which the weapon had been placed at the window of Mr. Allingham's house, and found that the measure in the memorandum was the exact length of the board. A pencil mark was noticed on the board, and on going to the carpenter shop of Briceland, a short distance away, the detective found other, and even more conclusive evidence of his guilt. Here was found the piece of board with a part of the pencil mark on it, and which had been sawed from the board found at the house. Two wooden pins had been used in holding the gas pipe to its place while it was fired. One of these pins had been sawed nearly off a piece of wood, and then broken. In the shop was found the other piece of this pin, and the two placed together fitted exactly. The slugs which had been used were made of pieces of lead and iron; and among the shavings and dirt of the shop were found several pieces of scrap lead and iron which evidently flew off while they were being cut from a larger piece. The chisel which had been used in cutting the lead was also secured.

After Briceland had been arrested suspicions began to be entertained that he had not been alone in the commission of the dreadful crime, and suspicion fell upon a man named Lister, a rather suspicious character, who had been seen a great deal in the company of Briceland. Lister was accordingly arrested yesterday morning by the Detective, though no very strong evidence has yet been obtained against him, other than general suspicions, and that he was seen in the company of Briceland at six o'clock on the eveuing of the murder, Detective Cupples made an information against him, charging him with being an accessory, and on that charge 'Squire Stewart committed him for a hearing on next Tuesday.

Briceland accounts for himself on Wednesday night by saying that he stayed at Chaplain Truax', near Paris Cross Roads, and proved that he went to bed that night. Detective Cupples visited the room where Briceland slept, and found conclusive evidence, in marks on the window sill, that Briceland had gone to bed and then climbed out of the window at night.

In this, as in a great majority of such cases, an investigation revealed that a woman was connected with the affair. It seems that some time ago Briceland had been very intimate with two yonng white women, named Kate and Maggie Howard, who lived a short distance from Eldersville. About one year ago one of the girls became the mother of a child, and it was strongly suspected by many, and even plainly intimated by some, that Briceland was the father. About this time, it is said, Mr. Allingham, the murdered man, circulated numerous anonymous letters to different persons in the neighborhood, in which he charged Briceland with the crime. When this came to his ears he became very angry, and is said to have declared that he would be revenged.

SENATOR SCHURZ.

He Defines His Position.

The following correspondence which transpired on Friday between Senators Schurz and Thurman, wherein the former announces his relations to the Democratic party, will be found of interest:

WASHINGTON, December 6, 1872.

MY DEAR SIR: I am informed that the Democratic members of the Senate have resolved to fill the only vacancy left by the Administration caucus in the Committee on Foreign Affairs with my name, Mr. Casserly voluntarily offering to give up the position he has hitherto held on that Committee as the representative of the Democratic Senators. I very highly appreciate the kindly spirit which characterizes your action with regard to myself, but I cannot permit this arrangement to be consummated without laying before you my view of circumstances surrounding this case. It has so far been the rule that the Democratic party, being in a minority in the Senate, should have at least one representative on each committee. The withdrawal of Mr. Casserly and my appointment in his place would deprive it of that representation. In every speech that I made during the late Presidential campaign, I frankly declared that I had not passed from the Republican into the Democratic party, and my attitude is the same to-day. I can therefore not be regarded as a representative of that party on a committee of the Senate. The generous action of your friends imposes upon me the duty of stating to you with equal frankness what my course will be. The programme drafted last winter in Missouri, upon the basis of which the Cincinnati Convention was called, represents substantially my political faith. It included the recognition and maintenance of the logical and legitimate results of the war as embodied in the Constitution as it stands, a policy of reconciliation with the south, honest and economical administration, a genuine and thorough reform of the civil service and of the revenue system, opposition to centralization and a dangerous assumption of powers, a return to sound constitutional principles, and the government of laws. For the realization of the principles laid down and the measures of policy advocated in that platform I shall faithfully work without permitting myself to be diverted by other considerations. If the Administration does anything to promote these ends I shall therein support it. In whatever the Administration may do in the opposite direction, I shall earnestly oppose it.

I shall therefore not make opposition to the Administation under any and all circumstances, nor support it under any and all circumstances, but in such support as well as such opposition be governed by my sense of duty without considering myself bound by party interests. It will therefore be clear to you that I cannot take upon myself the obligation of serving on a committee as the representative of a party, but mean to preserve the independence of the opinions and convictions of duty which will govern my conduct. While I cannot too strongly express my sense of the generous and friendly spirit which prompted you and your political associates in acting as you did, and especially of the magnanimity of Mr. Casserly in showing himself ready to give up an honorable position to make room for me, I should be unjust to you and your friends, as well as to myself, did I not, under the extraordinary circumstances in which the Administration caucus has placed us, lay before you an entirely frank and cordial expression of my views and purposes. I am, dear sir, very truly yours,

[Signed] C. SCHURZ.
To Hon. A. G. Thurman.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 5, 1872.

MY DEAR SIR: In reply to your letter of this date I am instructed by the Democratic Senators to say that your position and views were understood by them when they placed your name on the list of the Committee on Foreign Relations, and that your selection was not and is not considered by them as a surrender of principles or position by either you or them. Therefore they see no reason why you should not serve upon the committee. I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

A. G. THURMAN.
To Hon. Carl Schurz.

Douglass and Greeley.

Although it may not be easy to tell why it should be so, two sad experiences seem to suggest that our presidential candidates should abstain from active participation in the presidential contest. Mr. Douglass and Mr. Greeley furnish the only exceptions to this conventional rule; and both of them died not long after the elections in which, first one and the other, were unsuccessful. Both were men of strong constitution, of robust health, and of uncommon energy; it would be difficult to recall two other public men who could do as much labor as they, or do it nearly as well. Both, too, were veteran politicians, and ought to have been above the reach of the too exciting hopes and depressing disappointments that attend political life. Indeed, it is probable that neither of them ever had any sanguine hope of being elected; Douglass certainly did not have such a hope, and if Mr. Greeley allowed himself to entertain it at all, he must have abondoned it sometime before the plain lesson of the October elections. The personal canvass which each made may be regarded as the most brilliant episode in his life. Their speaking tours were not the result of a too eager zeal in their own personal interest; they were prompted by a pure and passionate patriotism. But Douglass died in the very flower of his age, a few months, and Greeley, in the ripeness of unimpared powers, a few weeks after the election. The herculean efforts that each made in behalf of his cause had not the slightest substantial effect. It seems impossible to find fault with the conduct of either in these personal campaigns, or to object to any one of the lofty speeches made in them. And yet it would have been better for them, perhaps, and far better for the country if they had each abstained from them. The courteous and diplomatic reticence of Mr. Buchanan, and the passionless imperturbability of Grant indicates the true policy for presidential candidates; they must be silent, while the fighting is done for them.—St. Louis Republican.

THE GREELEY ESTATE.

The New York Tribune of Dec. 6th contains the following article touching the project of raising a fund for the benefit of Mr. Greeley's two daughters:

TO THE PUBLIC: With a prompt and graceful, and, under the circumstances, we may say a chivalrous generosity of which we can hardly trust ourselves to speak, it has been proposed by a liberal money subscription to show to the daughters of Mr. Greeley the public affection and respect accorded to the memory of their lamented father. This thoughtful proposition has been made in The Herald newspaper, and the proprietor of that journal has tendered a sum nominally large, but understood to be considerably less than Mr. Bennett really desires to give. We have also received at this office letters offering assistance, great or comparatively small, according to the means of the writers. Yesterday further subscriptions were announced; and this fact obliges us to say that the Misses Greeley were unwilling, under any circumstances, that the plan of a subscription for their personal benefit should be adhered to. In the great sorrow which has fallen upon them so heavily, they are of course in no position to investigate their affairs. It will be a work of time to determine the condition of Mr. Greeley's estate; but however it may have been impaired by a liberality perhaps too great, by a loan of his own credit to those who proved unworthy of it, or by an overweening confidence in men's promises, there is, it is probable, enough remaining to quiet all these generous apprehensions of the community. And even if the provision were less, we must be allowed to say that the Misses Greeley are in the hands of immediate friends who will care for them with assiduous fidelity and unremitting tenderness, and who will recognize and repay the debt of grateful honor due to their father—a debt which it is strongly felt can never be adequately discharged. A sympathizing public may confide in our assurance that the young ladies are now the wards of those who will be glad as well as able to care for their every want and comfort, and to see to it that the death of their father shall make no change in their methods of life and their resources.

We announce the determination of these ladies at their own urgent request. While they are anxious not to be regarded as wanting in a grateful sense of the great kindness which prompted the subscription, they must be allowed to take the kindly will for the kindly deed. With a thousand heartfelt thanks, the proffered bounty is declined. There may be other methods of exhibiting the public liberality, methods by which the memory of Mr. Greeley may be perpetuated, and which would be grateful not merely to his children, but to the whole broad circle of his admirers. If these should commend themselves to the public approbation they would certainly be regarded by his daughters with a gratitude equal to that which so much kindness has already inspired.

☞ Mr. Joseph Einstein, a horse dealer well known on Fifth street, has been attacked with a strange and alarming disease. He is the owner of about twenty horses, all of which were attacked with the epizooty, and while washing the nostrils of some of them, a day or two since, the mucous flowing from them came in contact with an open cut on his hand. Not noticing it at the time, he was afterward unable to account for the strange illness that took possession of him. His flesh began to fall away his eyes grew watery, and, worst, of all, a full and steady stream of mucous matter began to discharge itself from his nose. In alarm he consulted doctors, and after a lengthened examination it was found that his system had been poisoned from the matter running from the corrupt animals. In short, he has the horse disease. The symptoms are almost exactly similar, and although up to this time no fears are entertained that he will die, there is no knowing what the developements may be. He is under constant scrutiny of several physicians, who will report progress.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Slow Poisoning From Green Wall Paper.—A physician in Western Massachusetts recently had a lady patient who, for several weeks, had been suffering from nausea, general prostration, and other symptoms of slow poisoning. Failing to discover the cause of the symptoms, as a last resort the doctor requested her to move from her chamber, the walls of which were covered with paper of a very light shade of green, so light, indeed, that in the evening it could scarcely be distinguished from white. After leaving the room the symptoms immediately disappeared, and the patient rapidly recovered. A sample of the paper was forwarded for analysis to the State chemist at Hartford (Mr. Joseph Hall, of the High School) and was found to contain a large quantity of arsenic. Mr. Hall obtained the poison in the various forms of metallic arsenic, yellow tersulphite, silver arsenic and arsenious acid or common white arsenic. He estimates that every square foot of this innocent looking paper contained an amount of poison equivalent to five grains of arsenious acid, or double the fatal dose for an adult person. Thus, in the moist warm weather of last July and August, was amply sufficient to keep the air of a room always impregnated with the poison, and any person occupying such a room would be as certainly poisoned as though the arsenic had been taken into the stomach.

We have submitted the justices and constables fee bill, which we publish this week to one of our best attorney's, for revision, and we can assure our readers that it is correct. We have struck off a limited number of copies, and are prepared to furnish justices and constables with them on application.

The Largest Bee-Hive in the World.—In Los Angeles county, on the eastern slope of the San Francisco range of mountains, and in the immediate vicinity of the Learning Petroleum Company's oil region, there is the most wonderful collection of wild honey in existence. The hive is located in a rift, which penetrates the rock to the depth of probably 160 feet. The orifice is 30 feet long and 17 feet wide; four passages. This rift was discovered to be the abiding place of a swarm of bees, that is represented as coming out in a nearly solid column one foot in diameter. Certain parties have endeavored to descend to the immense store of honey collected by these bees, but were invariably driven back, and one man lost his life in the effort. Others have, at the expense of much labor and money, built a scaffold 125 feet high, in the hope of reaching a place whence they could run a drift into the rock, and extract its well hoarded sweets, but finally ceased their work. Within four years the bees have added not less than fifteen feet of depth to their treasure, as ascertained by actual measurement, and it is thought that at the present time there cannot be less than eight or ten tons of honey in the rock. A man named B. Brophy lives in a cabin not far from the spot, and obtained, from the melting of the honey by the sun's heat, enough for his family requirements. All through that region immense stores of wild honey are found in trees, in the rocks, and nearly every place where its industrious manufacturers think—for bees seem to think—that it will be secure. They consume a very small proportion, as the climate enables them to keep up operations nearly every day in the year and flowers of some sort are always in bloom. It must be a very severe season, indeed, when the little fellows are not seen abroad in vast numbers, busily engaged in their mellifluous work.—San Francisco Herald.

Notice to Agents and Others.—Hereafter we will make no contracts with advertisers for the insertion of cuts of any description in the Argus. Four of the delegates—Meredith, Woodward, Darlington, and Purviance, of Allegheny,—were members of the Convention of 1838. A father and son—G. W. and H. W. Palmer—in part represent the XIIIth District, the father is a Liberal and the son a Republican. One clergyman, a Methodist local preacher, lends the Convention the sanction of his presence and example. There is one author in the list, Mr. Carey, who writes on Political Economy—a cheerful and pleasing subject.

Talk at the Toilet.—Every lady's maid knows that the bewitching beings who pave their triumphant way with conquered hearts, regard a splendid head of hair the most effective of all womanly fascinations. They believe, and they are right, that they can lasso as many beaux with the luxuriant ringlets and glossy braids as they "can kill at sight" with their beaming eyes. Hence in their "toilet talk" among themselves and with their attendants, the merits of preparations for the hair are freely canvassed, and the latest result of this discussion seems to be the almost universal adoption of Lyon's Katharion as an article better adapted to promote the growth and beauty of the "Chief Glory of Woman" than any other at present before the world. They say that without irritating the skin of the head it eradicates dandruff, and that it penetrates below the surface to the roots of the hair, endowing them with new life and vigor.

Report of County Superintendent.—The following is the report of the County Superintendent of common schools for the month of November, 1872:

Number of special examinations	2
" of teachers examined	5
" of provisional certificates issued	5
" of visits to schools	22
Average time spent at each	1h30m
Number of directors accompanying Superintendent	26
Number of patrons	4
" of days of each official duty	22
" of miles traveled	185
" of official letters written	13

Teachers have been selected for all of the schools of the county, and all of the schools, with one or two exceptions, are in operation. Most of the teachers, as far as visited, are giving satisfaction; some, however, seem to have missed their calling, and should either seek some other business or post themselves in the "Science of Teaching."

We would recommend every live teacher to subscribe for the Pennsylvania School Journal, or some other good educational work.

We propose to continue none but faithful, energetic teachers in the profession. And we trust that every director will feel it his duty to visit the school room frequently, and report such teachers as do give reasonable satisfaction. This is one of the first steps to advance the wages of competent teachers, who labor to give "value received." It is expected that teachers will attend the County Institute, as one means of improvement in methods of imparting instruction. M. L. Knight, Co. Supt.

He offers great inducements to merchants as well as the public in general, and all those who like to get bargains in Dry Goods, should call at once.

Material for a Romance.—Something over a year ago a young man, a short distance below Wheeling, was arrested for horse-stealing; and a girl, named Sarah G. Winemiller, who was deeply attached to him, wanted to share his jail life. This being refused, and she being almost crazed with fear that he would be sent to the penitentiary, determined to go with him. So, she set fire to a school-house, that was also used as a place of worship. For this arson she was arrested, convicted and sentenced to two years imprisonment in the Penitentiary. When "Sarah's young man's" trial came on the charge preferred against him fell to the ground. There was nothing in it; so Sarah went to the penitentiary alone, "all for love." On the 22d of November Governor Jacobs signed her pardon, and she was soon set free to go and find her lover, for whom she had suffered so much. Here's a chance for a romance writer to immortalize himself by showing, as has been remarked by some one we believe, that, "the course of true love never did run smooth." Sarah is only about sixteen years of age.

The Allegheny Quartette gave one of their almost inimitable performances in the Presbyterian church of Bridgewater on last Saturday evening. The audience was large and appreciative, and the sum of money realized on the occasion was considerable.

The Sore Throat of Consumptives.—The hoarseness and sore throat peculiar to some kinds of consumption is one thing, while that incident to a slight cold or obstruction is another; the first-named is for the most part dangerous, and is the product of a fearful and wide-spread disease; whilst the latter, being merely an obstruction, can be removed by a few doses of medicine of deobstruent properties. One need hardly be mistaken in the other, as the great constitutional disturbance in that of a consumptive person will readily distinguish them. It would be the part of wisdom, however, to treat them both when they are first perceptible, as a great deal is gained in taking the vantage ground in all such cases. Dr. Keyser's Great Lung Cure will remove in a day or two the simple form of disease; whilst the severest malady will take weeks or months before it can be eradicated and a healthy condition established. Dr. Keyser's treatise, which will be sent free of cost, wherever it is wanted, will explain more fully the method of action of the medicine. Price $1.50 per bottle, or 4 bottles for $5. If your druggist does not keep it, order it from Dr. K. direct. Office for lung examination, 167 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, from 10 a. m., until 1 p. m. and from 3 until 8 p. m., and on Saturday night until 9 o'clock.

Grand Vocal & Instrumental Concert.—We trust the citizens of Beaver and surrounding towns will not fail to attend the grand vocal and instrumental concert to be given in the audience room of the M. E. Church, Beaver, Pa., on next Thursday evening (Dec. 12). Prof. Butter himself is an eminent musician, and on the occasion referred to, he will be assisted by the best musical talent in the neighborhood.

The Bazar.—The public is respectfully informed the Bazar, under the auspices of the ladies of St. Joseph's Church, New-Brighton, will be opened Dec. 21st inst., and will continue every day and evening (Sundays excepted) until Jan. 4th, '73.

Every effort is being made to have the booths supplied with useful and fancy articles to be disposed of by vote, or by sale. Special interest, it is hoped, will be taken in the contests for the several articles offered. Among them a handsome field flag, to be presented to any military company, brass band, society, or base-ball club in Beaver county, having the highest number of votes at 25cts a vote. Also a fine 18 inch circular saw, presented by the Emerson Saw Works, Beaver Falls, is for competition by the planing and saw mill firms of this county, at 25 cts a vote. On the list of goods there is also a gentleman's fine gold watch to be contested for at 50 cts a vote, besides other articles of value will be competed for in the same way. But in addition, the Bazar will have another special feature of attraction and interest, and this is the "Wonder Camera," a most beautiful and amusing invention for entertainment. The Camera will show any opaque object; and it is so constructed by means of which Carte-de-visite, medallions, coins, gems, flowers, insects, shells, interior of a watch in motion, embroidery, minerals, and thousands of other objects can be shown greatly enlarged upon the screen in all their material motion. The Wonder Camera enables the possessor of a photographic album to produce the life size portraits of their friends, and is thus an inexhaustible source of enjoyment; whereas, the old magic lantern becomes stale when the few accompanying glass slides have lost their interest. No lover of amusement should fail to see the Wonder Camera at the Bazar. Good music engaged. Admission only 10 cts.

The Epizootic—A Fatal Case in Beaver.—The epizootic has taken a general "round" in this county—nearly every locality having been visited by the scourge. We are glad, however, to be able to say that while the disorder has affected business very materially, but few fatal cases have occurred in this locality. On last Tuesday, though, one of Woodruff & Meanor's horses, in this place, died from the disease. He had been affected with it for some time, and every care had been taken of the animal, but all to no purpose. It is to be hoped that the disorder has now about run its course in western Pennsylvania, and that but a short time will now elapse until the "noble steed" will be himself again, and once more resume his accustomed duties.

Opening of the New Buildings of Philipsburgh Soldiers' Orphan School.—The formal opening of the new and splendid building of the Soldiers' Orphan school took place on Thursday, the 5th inst. at 11 o'clock. Dispatches were read from Gov. Geary, Gen. Hartranft, Josiah King, esq., and Maj. Montooth, expressing regret at being unable to be present.

THE ORPHANS.

The orphans (one hundred and fifty or sixty in number) were all dressed in handsome, new suits. The girls had on a handsome wine-colored mohair poplin dress and overskirt, trimmed with black alpaca, and white collars and blue sashes; and presented to the eye—in the cleanliness of their person, the arrangement of their hair, their simple adornments, as well as the neatness and taste of their dress, the intelligence of their countenance, and the quiet and propriety of manners—the evidence of social as well as intellectual culture. The boys had new dark blue cloth jackets and light blue kersey trowsers, and new boots, and presented a handsome appearance on military drill.

THE OPENING EXERCISES.

The exercises were deeply interesting both to orphans and visitors; they were opened with reading of the Scriptures and prayer by Rev. J. M. Shields, of Bridgewater. A song of welcome arranged by Miss M. M. Taylor for the occasion, was sung by the school.

It was expected the Hon. J. P. Wickersham, L. L. D., would make the dedication speech; but being detained by official business, Rev. Mr. Milligan occupied his place and in a very handsome and interesting speech, set forth the importance of the work of the Soldiers Orphan School, and the success of the Philipsburgh School. He said that this State stood in the front rank in this particular, and that this school had deserved the confidence of the community and State, and the love and gratitude of the Soldiers Orphans, and that the fine building erected at the private expense of Rev. W. G. Taylor, was a credit to the State; he then showed the orphans their duty under these favorable circumstances, and presented many motives to effort on their part. The choir then sang well the song, "Let us have peace." Rev. Mr. Locke of Beaver followed in an interesting speech on the importance of the house as it introduced the orphans into a new and fine building, handsomely furnished and fitted in its minutest particulars to the work for which it is designed.

He was followed by Mr. Knight, Beaver County Supt., in appropriate remarks on the nature of the work of the Soldiers Orphans School, and the price at which it was instituted and sustained, viz: the blood of their fathers, and the treasures of the state, and the labors of such men and women as the principal and those associated with him in the work. He said that while he had visited this school oftener than any other in the county, he had not seen anything but what met his hearty approval; and also that it was a school of which Beaver county was justly proud. He was followed by Dr. Marquis, the physician of the school, in commendation of the workings of the school as it fell under his weekly inspection and of the enthusiasm of the Principal in his labors and plans for the advancement and comfort of these Soldiers Orphans.

Then followed a song by the choir, which was well executed. Closed with the benediction by Rev. Mr. Milligan. Then followed military drill by the boys.

THE DINNER.

After which, the audience and orphans sat down to a most sumptuous feast of fowls, pies, cakes, etc., provided by Mr. Taylor, and presided over by his accomplished wife and daughters. After which the visitors adjourned to the spacious parlors, and spent the afternoon in social enjoyment.

THE BUILDING.

The new building is joined to the old at the south end, making a front of 114 feet by 44 feet deep. The new building is 34 feet front by 44 feet deep, and four stories high; from the first floor to the top of the observatory it is 54 feet, and presents a beautiful appearance to the eye, having two fronts with porticos, east and south. Its adaptation to use the for which it is occupied, is remarkably good. It contains in addition to the old building, a girls' hall for sewing and sitting, 40 by 20 feet. A culinary 40 by 14 feet; this contains a large oven that will bake one hundred and twenty-five loaves, a large portable oven with twenty-five square feet of baking surface, for roasting, baking cakes, pies, and other cooking; a large double range containing two forty-five gallon kettles for boiling purposes and water. Next story contains a large double parlor 34 by 18 feet; reception room 15 by 19; office 12 by 19; and two halls, all carpeted and handsomely furnished. The third floor contains one large dormitory 34 by 18 feet; two chambers 15 by 19, and 12 by 19 feet, two halls; seventy-two clothing boxes for girls clothing; and seven large wardrobes; the whole is handsomely furnished and carpeted.

The fourth story is a boys dormitory divided into three rooms, and the side next the old building has a section of 6 by 44 feet cut off for storage; the whole building being well furnished with clothes presses. It is handsomely grained in oak and walnut throughout. It has a fine observatory rising from the centre of the roof. The heater makes the first story and halls and dormitories very comfortable; the other rooms have fires. The building and its appointments and furniture reflect great credit upon the liberality and taste of Prof. W. G. Taylor, and shows the parental care he and his wife have over the orphans.

Shocking.—A man in Pennsylvania who has suffered for a long time with rheumatism, was cured by a stroke of lightning from a thunder cloud, a few days ago. How contrary things act sometimes; now we know of a man who became paralyzed, the other day, just by the stroke of a poker in the hands of his wife: and another whose life was made happy by the fortunate discovery that S & J Snellenburg had still a large stock of clothing for men, youths, boys and children at the usual reasonable prices. Parties at a distance in want of wearing apparel would do well by calling on the above firm before making their purchases. New-Brighton, Pa.

A Huge Colt.—Mt. Jackson, North Beaver township, Lawrence county, produces the largest colt we have heard of for some time past. Mr. Samuel Wilson is its owner, and at the end of its first year it tipped the scales at 1075 pounds. If Beaver county has anything in the horse line that can equal or beat this, we would like to make a note of it. Our county, a couple of years ago, beat almost every other locality in large porkers, but we have degenerated since then, and even Greene county throws us completely in the shade in the matter of heavy hogs. Suppose, therefore, we try our hand on colts next.

Prices.—The low prices at which Hibbard, Rochester, sells goods, pays his customers a big per cent. on their money, give him a trial. Dec. 11;2w

The weather, during the past few days, has been quite variable in this locality. On Sabbath day it was mild as a spring day, at this writing (Tuesday morning) it is cold enough to chase everybody into the heaviest overcoat he can find.

Fact.—Not necessary for Hibbard to advertise in the county papers, his prices and customers advertise for him. Dec. 11;2w

The License Question.—The act passed by the last Legislature, and signed by Gov. Geary, prescribed that once every three years the citizens of the various counties shall vote upon the question "license" or "no license." If, upon counting the votes, the majority in any county are in favor of no license, then it shall not be lawful for the court of said county to grant any license for the sale of spirituous and intoxicating liquor during those three years. The first vote upon this question is to be taken at the spring election ensuing. It will be noticed the law does not call for a vote by election districts, as some suppose, but that the whole country is to be consulted whether or not liquor shall be sold within its limits. We hope that this law will be taken advantage of, and that we may have a fair expression of the people of our county on this very important question. We all profess to be willing to abide the will of the majority, so let us have a full and fair expression—License or No License—and settle the question for the ensuing three years.

Saved.—A gentleman saved the amount of $1.40, by buying the small bill of $7.78 of Hibbard, Rochester, go and do likewise. Dec. 11;2w

The First Thousand Dollars.—The first thousand dollars that a young man earns and saves, over and above his expenses in earning it, will ordinarily stamp upon his mind and character two of the most important conditions of success in after life—industry and economy. It is far better for him that he should earn the first thousand dollars, than that they should have been given him. If he earns it, he knows what it is worth, since it represents to him a very considerable amount of effort. If he saves it while earning a much larger sum, he acquires thereby the habit of economy. Neither of these lessons could be taught by a mere gift. On the whole, it is no disadvantage for a young man to begin life poor. Most persons who have become rich in this country were once poor; and in their poverty they gained habits from the stern necessities of their condition, which in the end resulted in riches. Those who are born with silver spoons in their mouths, and spend their early years in idleness and prodigality, seldom amount to much as men in the practical business of life.

At Home on Leave of Absence.—Capt. James Robertson, of the Navy, and son of A. Robertson, esq., deceased, of Beaver Falls, is at home at the present time on a leave of absence. He is awaiting orders.

Dry Goods.—Dress goods, millinery goods and notions, "way down," black alpaca at 25 cts a yard, muslin one yard and one inch wide for ten cts, at Hibbard's, Rochester. Dec. 11;2w

Lumber Lost by an Ice Gorge.—On last Monday night, one week ago, a heavy gorge of ice struck and took away a lot of boards lying in the Ohio river at Rochester, and owned by L. H. Oatman & Co. The valuation of the boards is about $2,000. A portion of the lumber has since been found near Shippingport, this county, while the remainder has been heard of as "floating down the Ohio." Mr. Oatman, we learn, was absent from home at the time, or doubtless he would have been able to have prevented the raft from leaving him so unceremoniously.

"Bread and Cheese and Kisses," is the title of an excellent tale just commenced in Harper's Weekly. We will commence its publication in the Argus next week, and continue it from issue to issue, until it is concluded. It is a well-written moral tale, and will be read with interest and profit by all. This much we need scarcely to say, for anything short of that standard would hardly appear as original in that most excellent family journal.—Harper's Weekly

We are indebted to Hon. John Allison for his annual report as Register of the Treasury for the year ended, June 30, 1872.

Severely Injured by a Fall.—Mrs. Robertson of Beaver Falls, the estimable widow of the Hon. A. Robertson formerly of that place, fell a few evenings ago, over an embankment on one of the streets, and was very severely injured by the fall. Her wounds were about the head and face, and although quite painful for a few days are now rapidly getting better.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$8 per case.

DRIED FRUITS—Peaches, small lots prime halves at 8a9 cts; apples dull at 4 a6 cts.

EGGS are coming in pretty freely, but prices for fresh are still maintained at 30a32 pickled eggs at 25a30 cts.

FEATHERS—No. 1, live geese may be quoted at 72a75 to the trade, and 3 to 5cts additional for smaller lots.

FLOUR—The market is firm, in sympathy with wheat, but there is no advance, and, furthermore, it is not likely there will be. We quote at $7.50a8 for spring wheat, the outside quotation for choice Minnesotas; and $8.00a8.50 for red winter. Rye flour, $5.50

GRAIN—Trade is rather better, but by no means active. Wheat is in rather better demand; $1 60a1 65 for fair to prime red; $1 70a1 75 for amber; and $1 80a1 85 for white. Oats continue dull, but with continued light receipts; 38a40 may still be regarded as the ruling quotations, Sales shelled corn at 55a70cts. New ear is still quoted at 48a50. Rye is quiet and unchanged; 80 buying, and 85 selling. Barley 80a85 for common to fair, and 00 for prime.

GROCERIES—Trade is fair but by no means active; it is true the epizootic is, judging from the largely increased number of horses on the streets, rapidly abating; but money continues about as close as ever, rendering collections very difficult to make, and this, of course, is not without its effect in curtailing business. Sugars are easier, and we have reduced our quotations for refined goods ¼ of a cent. Coffees are quiet and unchanged.

SUGARS—Granulated 13¼; Crushed 13¼; Powdered 13¼; A Coffee 12; B 12¼; Ex C 12¼; C 12¼; Chesapeake Ex C 12¼; Molasses Sugars 8¼@10; Porto Rico 10½@11; Demarara 11½@11¾.

COFFEE—Choice Rio 23; Prime 22; Good 21; Fair 20; Java 25 to 26; Mocha 32. Roasted in ℔ packages 25, loose 24½.

RICE—Carolina 8½@9; Rangoon 7@7½; Patna 8.

SPICES—Grain Pepper 23; Allspice 18; Cassia 40; Clover 30; Nutmegs $1.25.

HAY—There is a fair demand for baled, and the receipts of wagon hay is affected by the epizootic; we quote at $27@32 per ton, according to quality.

HONEY—Sales 25@30 cts per ℔.

LARD OIL is firmer and in light supply; No. 1 winter strained is quoted at 78@80 cts.

ONIONS—Sales in small lots at $2,50 a3,00 per bbl, as to quality.

POULTRY—Live chickens 50a60 cents per pair; dressed 15a14 cts per ℔.

POTATOES—Sales of peach Blows on track at 70a75 cents, from store at 75. Sweets $4 00a5, per bbl.

PROVISIONS—Plain Shoulders, 7½; Sugar Cured Shoulders 10c; Breakfast Bacon 14; Rib Sides 11; Short Rib Sides 11½; Clear Sides 12; Sugar Cured Hams 17½; Dried Beef 18. Lard in tierces 9½c; half bbls, 10½; pails 11. Mess Pork $15½. Beef Tongues $7,50 per dozen.

RAGS—Quoted at 3¼a3½ cts.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

BLOOD PURIFIER

It is not a physic which may give temporary relief to the sufferer for the first few doses, but which, from continued use brings Piles and kindred diseases to aid in weakening the invalid, nor is it a doctored liquor, which, under the popular name of "Bitters" is so extensively palmed off on the public as sovereign remedies, but it is a most powerful Tonic and Alterative, pronounced so by the leading medical authorities of London & Paris and has been long used by the regular physicians of other countries with wonderful remedial results.

Dr. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

retains all the medicinal virtues peculiar to the plant and must be taken as a permanent curative.

Is there want of action in your Liver & Spleen? Unless relieved at once, the blood becomes impure by deleterious secretions, producing scrofulous or skin diseases, Blotches, Felons, Pustules, Canker, Pimples, &c.

Take Jurubeba to cleanse, purify and restore the vitiated blood to healthy action.

Have you a dyspeptic stomach? Unless digestion is promptly aided the system is debilitated with loss of vital force, Poverty of Blood, Dropsical Tendency, General Weakness or Lassitude.

Take it to assist digestion without reaction; it will impart youthful vigor to the sufferer.

Have you weakness of the Intestines? You are in danger of Chronic Diarrhœa or the dreadful Inflammation of the Bowels.

Take it to allay irritation and ward off tendency to inflammations.

Have you Weakness of the Uterine or Urinary Organs? You must procure instant relief or you are liable to suffering worse than death.

Take it to strengthen organic weakness or life becomes a burden.

Finally it should be frequently taken to keep the system in perfect health or you are otherwise in great danger of malarial, miasmatic or contagious diseases.

tion from Maine to the Gulf of Mexico. Such a route, along our coast would be of great value is case of foreign war. Nature has provided the greater part of the route, and the obstacles to be overcome are easily within the skill of the Engineer.

I have not alluded to this subject with the view of having any further expenditure of public money at this time than may be necessary information before Congress in an anthentic form, to enable it hereafter, if deemed practicable and worthy, to legislate on the subject without delay.

THE NAVY DEPARTMENT.

The report of the Secretary of the Navy herewith accompanying, explains fully the condition of that branch of the public service. It shows a deficiency in the expenses incurred during the past year, and wants an appropriation for the same. It also gives a complete history of the services of the navy for the past year. In addition to its regular service, it is evident that unless early steps are taken to preserve our navy, that in a very few years the United States will be the weakest nation on the ocean of all the great powers. With an energetic, progressive business people like ours, penetrating and forming business relations with every part of the known world, a navy strong enough to command the respect of our flag abroad is necessary for the full protection of their rights. I recommend careful consideration by Congress of the reccommendation made by the Secretary of the Navy.

POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

The accompanying report of the Postmaster General furnishes a full and satisfactory exhibit of the operations of the Postoffice Department during the year. The ordinary revenues of the Department for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1872, amounted to $21,915,422.37, and the expenditures to $26,658,195.31. Compared with the previous fiscal year, the increase of revenue was $1,878,380.95, or 9.37 per cent, and the increase of each expenditure $2,268,088.23, or 8.29 percent. Adding to the ordinary revenues the annual appropriation of $700,000 for free matter, and the amounts paid to the subsidized mail steamship lines from special appropriations, the deficiency paid out of the general Treasury was $3,317,765.94, an excess of $389,707.28 over the deficiency for the year 1871.

Other interesting statistical information relating to our rapidly extending postal service is furnished in this report. The total length of railroad mail routes on the 30th of June, 1872, was 57,911 miles, 8,077 additional miles of such service having been put into operation during the year. Eight new lines of railway postoffices have been established, with an aggregate length of 2,909 miles. The number of letters exchanged in the mails with foreign countries was 24,862,300, an increase of 4,066,582, or twenty per cent, over the number in 1871, and the postage thereon amounted to $1,871,246.25. The total weight of the mails exchanged with European countries exceeded 820 tons. The steamship service was $220,301.70. The total cost of the United States trans-Atlantic mail steamship service was $220,301.70. The total cost of the United States ocean steamship service, including the amounts paid to the subsidized lines of mail steamers, was $102,702,097.

The following are the only steamship lines now receiving subsidies for mail service under special Acts of Congress. The Pacific Mail Steamship Company receive $500,000 per annum for conveying monthly mail between San Francisco, Japan and China, which will be increased to one million per annum for a semi-monthly mail on and after October 1st, 1873. The United States and Brazil Mail Steamship Company receive $150,000 per annum for conveying a monthly mail between New York and Rio Janerio, Brazil, and the California, Oregon, and Mexico Steamship Company receive $75,000 per annum for conveying a monthly mail between San Francisco and Honolulu, Hawayian island, making the total amount of mail steamship subsides at present $725,000 per annum. Our postal communications with all parts of the civilized world have been placed upon a most advantageous footing by the improved postal conventions and arrangements recently concluded with the leading commercial countries of Europe and America, and the gratifying statement is made that with the conclusion of a satisfactory convention with France, the details of which have been definitely agreed to by the head of the French Postal Department, subject to the approval of the Minister of Finance, little remains to be accomplished by treaty for some time to come with respect either to reduction of rates or improved facilities of postal intercourse.

Your favorable consideration is respectfully invited to the recommendation made by the Post master General for an increase of service from monthly to semi-monthly trips on the mail steamship Iisute to Brazil, for a subsidy in aid of the establishment of an American line of mail steamers between San Francisco, New Zealand and Australia, for the establishment of a post office savings bank, and for the increase of the salaries of the heads of bureaus.

THE FRANKING PRIVILEGE.

I have heretofore recommended the abolition of the franking privilege, and see no reason now for changing my views on that subject. If not having been favorably regarded by Congress, however, I now suggest a modification of that privilege, to correct its glaring and costly abuses.

ACQUIRING TELEGRAPH LINES.

I would recommend also the appointment of a committee or commission to take into consideration the best method, equitable to private corporations who have invested their time and capital in the establishment of telegraph lines now in operation, and of connecting this service with the postal service of the nation. It is not probable that this subject could receive the proper consideration during the limits of the short session of Congress, but it may be initiated, so that future action may be fair to the Government and to the private parties concerned.

OCEAN MAIL SERVICE.

There are but three lines of ocean steamers, namely, the Pacific Mail steamship company, between San Francisco, China and Japan, with provision made for a semi-monthly service after October 1st, 1873; the United States and Brazil line, monthly, and the California, New Zealand and Australia line, monthly, plying between the United States and foreign ports, and owned and operated under our flag. I earnestly recommend that such liberal contracts for carrying the mails be authorized with these lines as will insure their continuance. If the expediency of extending the aid of the Government to lines of steamers which hitherto have not received it, should be deemed worthy of the consideration of Congress, political and commercial objects make it advisable to bestow such aid on a line under our flag between Panama and the western South American ports. By this means much trade now diverted to other countries might be brought to us, to the mutual advantage of this country and those lying in that quarter of the continent of America.

The report of the Secretary of the Treasury will show an alarming falling off in our carrying trade for the last ten or twelve years, and even for the past year. I do not believe that the public treasure can be better expended in the interest of the whole people than in trying to recover this trade. An expenditure of $5,000,000 per annum for the next five years, if it would restore to us our proportion of the carrying trade of the world, would be profitably expended. The price of labor in Europe has so much enhanced within the last few years that the cost of building and operating ocean steamers in the United States is not so much greater than in Europe, that I believe the time has arrived for Congress to take this subject into consideration.

THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

Detailed statements of the disbursements through the department of justice will be furnished by the Attorney General, though these have been somewhat increased by the recent acts of Congress to enforce the rights of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union, to enforce the provisions of the Fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and the amendment thereto. I cannot question the necessity and salutary effect of these enactments. Reckless and lawless men, I regret to say, have associated themselves together in some localities, to deprive other citizens of the rights guaranteed to them by the constitution of the United States, and to that end have committed deeds of blood and violence, but the prosecution and punishment of many of these persons have tended greatly to the repression of such disorders. I do not doubt that a great majority of the people in all parts of the country favor the full enjoyment by all classes of persons of those rights to which they are entitled under the constitution and laws, and I invoke the aid and influence of all good citizens to prevent organizations whose objects are by unlawful means to interfere with these rights. I look with confidence to a time not far distant, when the obvious advantages of good order and peace, with the abandonment of all combinations prohibited by the acts referred to, and when it will be unnecessary to carry on prosecution or inflict punishments to protect citizens from the lawless doings of such combinations. Applications have been made to me to pardon persons convicted of a violation of said acts, on the ground that clemency in such cases would tend to tranquilize the public mind; and to test the virtue of that policy, I am disposed, as far as my sense of justice will permit, to give to these applications a favorable consideration; but action thereon is not to be construed as indicating any change in my determination to enforce the will and rigor of such acts so long as the conspiracies and combinations therein named disturb the peace of the country. It is much to be regretted, and is regretted by no one more than myself, that a necessity has ever existed to exercise the enforcement of the act. No one can desire more than I that the necessity of applying it may never again be demanded.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

The Secretary of the Interior reports satisfactory improvement and progress in each of the several Bureaus under the control of the Interior Department. They are in excellent condition. The work which in some of them for some years has been brought down to a recent date, and all the current business has been promptly dispatched.

THE INDIANS.

The policy which was adopted at the beginning of this administration with regard to the management of the Indians, has been as successful as its most ardent friends anticipated within so short a time. It has reduced their forages upon the white settlements, tended to give the largest opportunity for the extension of the great railroads through the public domain, the pushing of settlements into more remote districts of country, and at the same time improved the condition of the Indians. The policy will be maintained without any change, excepting such as further experience may show to be necessary to render it more efficient.

The subject of converting the so called Indian Territory south of Kansas into a home for the Indian, and erecting thereon a territorial form of Government, is one of great importance. As a compliment of the existing Indian policy, the question of removal to that territory has within the past year been presented to many tribes resident upon other and less desirable portions of the public domain, and has generally been received by them with favor. As a preliminary step to the organization of such a territory, it will be necessary to confine the Indians now resident therein to farms of proper size, which should be secured to them in fee, the residue to be used for the settlement of other friendly Indians. Efforts will be made in the immediate future to induce the removal of as many peaceably disposed Indians to the Indian Territory as can be settled properly without disturbance to the harmony of those already there. There is no other location now available where a people who are endeavoring to acquire a knowledge of pastoral and agricultural pursuits can be as well accommodated as upon the unoccupied lands within the Indian Territory.

A Territorial Government should, however protect the Indians from the inroads of whites for a term of years until they become sufficiently advanced in the arts and civilization to guard their own rights and from the disposal of the lands held by them for the same period. During the last fiscal year there was disposed of out of the public lands 11,864,175 acres, a quantity greater by 1,099,570 acres than was disposed of the previous. Of this amount, 1,370,320 acres were sold for cash, 389,460 located with military warrants, 4,671,332 acres taken for homesteads, 693,613 acres located with college scrip, 3,554,887 acres granted to railroads, 465,347 acres granted to wagon roads, 714,255 acres given to the States as swamp land, and 5,760 acres located by Indian scrip. The cash receipts from all sources in the Land Office amounted to $3,218,100. During the same period 22,016,608 acres of the public lands were surveyed, which added to the quantity already surveyed, amounts to 583,364,780 acres leaving 1,257,633,628 acres of the public land still unsurveyed.

The reports from the subordinates of the Land Office contain interesting information in regard to their respective districts. They uniformly mention the fruitfulness of the soil during the past season, and the increased yield of all kinds of produce. Even in those States and Territories where mining is the principal business, agricultural products have exceeded the local demand, and liberal shipments have been made to distant points.

THE PATENT OFFICE.

During the year ending Sept. 30, 1872, there were issued from the Patent Office 13,626 patents, 233 extentions, and 556 certificates and registers of trade marks. During the same time 19,527 applications for patents, including re-issues and designs, have been received, and 3,100 caveats filed. The fees received during the same period amounted to $70,095,486, and the total expenditures to $62,355,390, making the net receipts over the expenditures $7,740,096. Since 1836 200,000 applications for patents have been filled, and about 133,000 patents issued. The office is being conducted under the same laws and general organization as were adopted at the original inauguration, when only from 100 to 500 applications were made per annum. The Commissioner shows that the office has outgrown the original plan, and that a new organization has become necessary.

The subject was presented to Congress in a special communication in February last with my approval and the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, and the suggestions in said communication were embraced in the bill that was reported to the House by the committee on Patents at the last session. The subject of the reorganization of the Patent Office as contemplated by the bill referred to, is one of such importance to the industrial interests of the country that I commend it to the attention of Congress. The Commissioner also treats the subject of the separation of the Patent Office from the Department of the Interior. This subject is also embraced in the bill heretofore referred to. The commissioner complains of the want of room for the model gallery, and for the working force and necessary files of the office. It is impossible to transact the business of the office properly without more room in which to arrange files and drawings that must be consulted hourly in the transaction of business. The whole of the Patent Office building will soon be needed, if it is not already, for the accommodation of the business of the Patent Office.

PENSIONS.

The amount paid for pensions in the last fiscal year was $30,179,340, an amount larger by $3,708,434 than was paid during the preceding year. Of this amount $2,313,409 were paid under the act of Congress of February 17, 1871, to survivors of the war of 1812. The annual increase of pensions by the legislation of Congress has more than kept pace with the natural yearly losses from the rolls. The act of Congress of June 8, 1872, has added an estimated amount of $750,000 per annum to the rolls, without increasing the number of pensioners. We cannot, therefore, look for any substantial decrease in the expenditures of this department for some time to come, or so long as Congress continues to so change the rates of pension.

The whole number of soldiers enlisted in the war of the rebellion was 2,688,523. The total number of claims for invalid pensions is 176,000, being 6 per cent. of the whole number of enlisted men. The total number of claims on hand at the beginning of the year was 91,689; the number received during the year was 26,574; the number disposed of was 39,978, making a net gain of 12,604. The number of claims now on file is 590,800. On the 30th of June, 1872, there were on the rolls the names of 95,405 invalid military pensioners, 113,518 widows, orphans and dependent relatives, making an aggregate of 208,923 army pensioners.

At the same time there were on the rolls the names of 1,449 navy pensioners and 1,730 widows and orphans and dependent relatives, making the whole number of naval pensioners 3,179. There have been received, since the passage of the act to provide pensions for the survivors of the war of 1812, 3,655 applications prior to June 30, 1872. Of these there were allowed during the last fiscal year 20,126 claims; 4,845 were rejected during the year leaving 11,580 claims pendinging at that date. The number of pensions of all classes granted during the last fiscal year was 33,838.

During that period there were dropped from the rolls for various causes 9,504 names, leaving a grand total of 232,229 pensioners on the rolls on the 30th of June, 1872. It is thought that the claims for pensions on account of the war of 1812 will all be disposed of by the first of May, 1873. It is estimated that $30,480,000 will be required for the pension service during the next fiscal year.

THE CENSUS.

The ninth census is about completed. Its early completion is a subject of congratulation, inasmuch as the use to be made of the statistics therein contained depends very greatly on the promptitude of publication. The Secretary of the Interior recommends that a census be taken in 1875, which recommendation should receive the early attention of Congress. The interval at present established between the federal census is so long that the information obtained at the decimal period as to the material condition and resources of the nation is of little

The report of the Commissioner contains a vast amount of educational details of great interest. The bill now pending before Congress providing for the appropriation of the net proceeds of the sales of public land for educational purposes to aid the

MOST PROMINENT AMERICAN WRITERS.

This series will be commenced immediately, and will embrace contributions from men eminent in literature and science.—These articles will not be confined to the staple topics of the day, but will introduce new and original themes, which will make the collection one of the most interesting and important contributions to American literature.

A Series of Original Articles on Parlor

GAMES AND HOME AMUSEMENTS.

This series will embrace all the great variety of amusements which have become so popular during the last few years. Parlor Theatricals, Charades, Magical delusions, Scientific Experiments, Legerdemain, Divining Oracles, Card Games, etc., including all that is humorous, droll, and amusing in the whole range of games.—Much that is useful and instructive will give these articles value to all our readers, and will make a department, to which all who wish innocent amusement for the young, will prise and enjoy.

The Fireside Companion

Will contain more new and Powerful

CONTINUED STORIES THAN HAVE EVER APPEARED IN ANY AMERICAN PAPER.

Our arrangements for the new year surpass all previous efforts; the vastly increased circulation of THE FIRESIDE COMPANION enabling us to complete our engagements upon a scale of unexampled liberality. The engagement of Mr. EDMUND YATES, who has come to this country to lecture, will convince our subscribers that money will not be spared to procure for them the best that can be obtained in every department.

SHORT STORIES, SKETCHES, POETRY, AND BIOGRAPHY,

From the Best Writers in each of these specialties, will make the variety of interesting and valuable reading in THE FIRESIDE COMPANION for 1873 greater than can be found in any other American periodical. We trust thereby to increase the just prominence already gained by THE FIRESIDE COMPANION as a literary paper. Nothing of an immoral tendency is ever admitted into its columns. The stories and sketches are in every instance pure and healthful in tone, such as any father or mother can read aloud to the family circle, or freely place in the hands of their children.

The high reputation of the regular contributors of THE FIRESIDE COMPANION, among whom may be mentioned, EDMUND YATES, JOHN ELDERKIN, Mrs SUMNER HAYDEN, CLARA PERCY, LUCY RANDALL COMFORT, EMILY FAITHFUL, MARY GRACE HALPINE, ELIZABETH DUDLEY, J. W. MACKEY, CAPTAIN CARLTON, Doctor PAEON, S. W. PEARCE, G. L. AIKEN, and TONY PASTOR, constitute a guarantee of the character and interest of its unique and comprehensive features, unequalled in variety—a fact which makes it acceptable to persons of the most opposite tastes.

FASHION, HUMOR, GOSSIP, AND CORRESPONDENCE.

Every week there is a fresh and interesting review of the Fashions; and a valuable addition to the Family Circle in the form of receipts and suggestions, entitled BREAKFAST, DINNER AND TEA; or THE HOUSEKEEPER'S RELIEF. Those humorously inclined will be more than satisfied with the exquisite treatment of the element of humor under the head of HUMOROUS DRIFT and OUR FUNNY CONTRIBUTORS, while Bricktop will depict the laughable side of men and things. In fact, the amount of fun and laughter contained in these articles, are worth, every week, far more than the price of the paper.

No expense or pains are spared to make THE CORRESPONDENTS' COLUMN the most attractive that money and talent can make it. This department is edited by a leading clergyman in Brooklyn, and a vast amount of information is given; answers to questions relating to love and etiquette; legal and medical questions; information for the kitchen and household; in fact, answers to all questions that turn up in life, can be found in this column.

READING FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

This is and will continue to be one of the prominent features of the paper. The contributions to this department are by the very foremost writers for children in the country. This alone makes THE FIRESIDE COMPANION invaluable to every household where there are children. We know of instances where the little ones insist upon having these articles read over and over again to them before the paper for the following week is issued.

We endeavor to make THE FIRESIDE COMPANION the best, most useful, and most desirable paper in America.

I took six bottles of the Resolvent, and one box of Radway's Pills, and two bottles of your Ready Relief; and there is not a sign of tumor to be seen or felt, and I feel better, smarter, and happier than I have for twelve years. The worst tumor was in the left side of the bowels, over the groin. I write this to you for the benefit of others. You can publish it if you choose. HANNAH P. KNAPP.

VINEGAR BITTERS
PURELY VEGETABLE
FREE FROM ALCOHOL
DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion. Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No System of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Mechanical Diseases. Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, will be subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS once or twice a week, as a Preventive.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposits) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic and Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safe-guard in all cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc. Their Counter-Irritant influence extends throughout the system. Their Anti-Bilious properties stimulate the liver, in the secretion of bile, and its discharges through the biliary ducts, and are superior to all remedial agents, for the cure of Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, etc.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus forearmed.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassful. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef steak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take out-door exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

This Cut illustrates the manner of Using

Fountain Nasal Injector

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY.

It is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried high up and perfectly applied to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. The want of success in treating Catarrh heretofore has arisen largely from the impossibility of applying remedies to these cavities and chambers by any of the ordinary methods. This obstacle in the way of effecting cures is entirely overcome by the invention of the Douche. In using this instrument, the Fluid is carried by its own weight, (no snuffing, forcing or pumping being required,) up one nostril in a full gently flowing stream to the highest portion of the nasal passages, passes into and thoroughly cleanses all the tubes and chambers connected therewith, and flows out of the opposite nostril. Its use is pleasant, and so simple that a child can understand it. Full and explicit directions accompany each instrument. When used with this instrument, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications.

Symptoms of Catarrh. Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucus, purulent, offensive, etc. In others a dryness, dry, watery, weak or inflamed eyes, stopping up or obstruction of nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, &c. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, when used with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, and accompanied with the constitutional treatment which is recommended in the pamphlet that wraps each bottle of the Remedy, is a perfect specific for this loathsome disease, and the proprietor offers, in good faith, $500 reward for a case he can not cure. The Remedy is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. The Catarrh Remedy is sold at 50 cents. Douche at 60 cents, by all Druggists, or either will be mailed by proprietor on receipt of 60 cents.
